Dr. Albright's Message

Dear Charlotteans:

As Johnson C. Smith University prepares to celebrate our annual homecoming festivities, I am delighted to extend to you an opportunity to join us and participate in the many exciting events which are scheduled to occur. Our entire University community has been actively involved in planning for a memorable agenda of activities and we will be especially pleased and honored to have you share in some or all of the festivities.

We are particularly indebted to Mr. Bill Johnson and THE CHARLOTTE POST for the magnificent publicity we are receiving and it is our hope that this special supplement about our homecoming events will be of interest to you. We consider ourselves Charlotte's University and we are especially grateful for all of the fine and loyal support you have provided over the years. Hence, we sincerely look forward to having you join us in the events of our homecoming weekend.

With continued thanks and deepest appreciation to each of you for joining in our new "Town-gown" relationship and for your support of our "New Era of Excellence," I am

Sincerely yours,
Robert L. Albright
President
