

Willette Bowser
.....Independence graduate

Willette L. Bowser

Airman Willette L. Bowser, daughter of Mary E. Bowser of 2527-B Double Oaks Road, Charlotte, has completed Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

The airman, who is remaining at Lackland for specialized instruction in the education and training field, studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

Completion of this training earned the individual credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

She is a 1985 graduate of Independence High School, Charlotte.

Sgt. George Reid

Master Sgt. George A. Reid, son of Pearl R. Cherry and stepson of Richard Cherry of 3040 Ridge Ave., Charlotte, has been awarded an associate degree in applied science by the Community College of the Air Force.

The worldwide college, headquartered at Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala., awards associate degrees to enlisted airmen for programs combining technical education received in the Air Force with general education provided by civilian institutions.

Reid is a missile maintenance technician at Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala.

His wife, Eddie, is the daughter of Atwood B. Sifford of 1616 Hill St. N.W., Staten Island, N.Y.

He is a 1985 graduate of York Road Senior High School, Charlotte.

BEFORE THE MASTERPIECE there is a side of a great sculptor few people see. It's those long, time-consuming hours that go into crafting each and every feature until it pleases his toughest critic... himself.

This is also the spirit which thrives at Jack Daniel's. Before we can hope to please you, we first must please ourselves. That's why we take the extra time to charcoal mellow our whiskey the slow, old Tennessee way, drop-by-drop.

So when you try our Jack Daniel's whiskey, you'll find that like a great sculptor's finished piece, our rare, sippin-smooth whiskey is the best.

It takes time to be the best. Jack Daniel's.
