Silver Mount Baptist Church Will Host Pre-Thanksgiving Services November 27

By Jalyne Strong
Post Staff Writer

Silver Mount Baptist Church will host its annual pre-Thanksgiving service on Wednesday, November 27, at 7:30 p.m. At which time, the sons of three of Charlotte's prominent pastors, sons who are now ministers in their own right, will deliver sermons of Thanksgiving.

The three inspiring young men, following in their fathers' footsteps, are Rev. A. B. Sutton Jr., Rev. N.E. Kerry Jr., and Rev. Lincoln C. Lee.

Rev. A. B. Sutton Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Sutton, is a graduate of Bishop College of Dallas, Texas, and associate minister of Ebenezer Baptist Church, where his father is pastor. A talented youth who sings as well as he preaches, Rev. Sutton Jr. plans to continue his education at Union Seminary.

Rev. N. E. Kerry Jr. is the son of the late Dr. N. E. Kerry Sr. and Mrs. Jean Kerry. Having attended Bishop College in Dallas, Texas, and Central Piedmont Community College, Rev. Kerry Jr. is a student at Johnson C. Smith University. He is an associate minister at Greater Mt. Sinai Baptist, the church his father once pastored. An excellent singer and preacher, he recently preached at the Baptist State Convention mid-night service and the Youth Evangelist Conference.

Rev. Lincoln C. Lee, the son of Dr. and Mrs. William Lee Jr., is an associate minister at the church his father pastored, Silver Mount Baptist. A student at Shaw University, he is, also, a talented preacher and singer.

All three young ministers are members of the Mecklenburg General Baptist Association.

For this very special occasion, Silver Mount's 200-voice Concert Choir will render the music.

In the Silver Mount tradition, Morrison's fully baked turkeys, with all the trimmings, will be given away at the close of the service.

The public is warmly invited to come out and participate in this Thanksgiving event.

Dr. William Lee Jr. is pastor of Silver Mount Baptist Church, located on Old Pineville Road in south Charlotte.

NEW ST. JOHN
"Thanksgiving in Troublesome Times" will be the theme of Rev. Robert Leak's Sunday morning sermon on November 24, at New St. John Baptist Church. In this message, the pastor will remind us there's always something to thank God for, even during what we perceive as the worst situations.

Special thanks are extended to Rev. Don Steger and the congregation of Redeemer Memorial Baptist Church for helping to make the 70th anniversary celebration at New St. John a success.

Look forward to the first Sunday in December when The Voices of Hope, New St. John's children's choir, will present its annual concert.

The public is always welcomed at the church, located at 2000 St. John Rd. in the Hickory-Grove area. Rev. Robert Leak is pastor.

TRINITY PARK
Trinity Park Baptist, along with Torrence Grove AME Zion Church, will have their annual pre-Thanksgiving service on Tuesday, November 26, at the Trinity Park Church, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Sonny Turner, pastor of Torrence Grove, will deliver the sermon. Dinner will be served following the service.

The public is cordially invited. Trinity Park Baptist is located at 9115 Trinity Rd. Rev. Robert M. Miller is pastor.

FIRST MT. CALVARY
On Sunday, November 24, at 3 p.m., the family of First Mt. Calvary Baptist will celebrate its 78th church anniversary.

Dr. L. D. Parker, pastor of St. Luke Baptist Church, will be the guest minister. The St. Luke choir and congregation will accompany their pastor on this occasion.

The public is invited to come out and make this a successful program in the name of the Lord.

First Mt. Calvary is located at 200 W. 28th St. Rev. James Hawthorne is pastor.

Rev. C.E. Woods is pastor of Elm Street. The church is located at 125 Wadsworth Pl.

SAINT MARK
The members of Saint Mark AME Zion Church will hold an appreciation service for Mrs. Francessa Huggins on Sunday, November 24, at 4 p.m.

Rev. Bernard H. Sullivan, pastor of East Stonewall AME Zion Church, will deliver the afternoon message. He will be accompanied by his choir and congregation.

The public is cordially invited. Saint Mark's pastor is Rev. Walter Huggins Jr.

BIG PINEVILLE
The Voices of Big Pineville Musical Choir will celebrate its first anniversary by presenting a concert on Sunday, November 24, at 5 p.m. at Big Pineville AME Zion Church.

The choir consists of 24 members, under the direction of Robert Windley, director and pianist. An accomplished musician, Windley is also the director of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte's Children of the Sun Choir. Accompanying musicians will be James Rogers, organist; Renard Bowers, drummer; and Joseph Dillard, bass guitarist. Special guest soloist will be Annie Rose Poole.

An invitation is extended to all. Rev. Charles Reid is pastor of Big Pineville Church, located off Providence Rd. West in Pineville, N.C.

NEW ZION
New Zion Baptist Church will honor Rev. Jeremiah Robinson and his wife on their first anniversary with the church on November 24, at 3 p.m.

Rev. Phillip Davis of Galilee Baptist Church will preside as master of ceremony. Guest minister for this special occasion will be Rev. William Lee Jr., pastor of Silver Mount Baptist Church. He will be accompanied by his choir and congregation.

Other choir groups from Charlotte and the surrounding area will be featured also.

Rev. Robinson, a singer, teacher and preacher, has been an inspiration to New Zion. The church has grown under his leadership and new organizations have been formed.

He has attended East Coast Bible College, Gaston College, Tearner's School of Religion, various workshops and seminars and is now attending Metrolina Seminary.

A member of Minister's Conference No. 2, Rev. Robinson is also a member of the Christian Minister Fellowship Association of Charlotte. His wife, Jessie, attends East Coast Bible College. She is a member of the Interdenominational Ministers' Wives Alliance and Mt. Peace Wives Association.

The public is invited to come out and share in the recognition service for the pastor and first lady of Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

Dinner will be served at 1:30 p.m. The church is located on Performance Place.

C. N. JENKINS
The members of C. N. Jenkins United Presbyterian Church will join together for a Mortgage Burning Celebration.

The celebration will begin on Saturday, November 23, at 6 p.m. with the "History and Foundation" of the church. The actual Mortgage Burning service will take place during the Sunday morning worship hour, November 24.

It will be highlighted Sunday afternoon with a "A Look into the Future." Rev. Jennifer Louise Burns, associate pastor of Myers Park Presbyterian Church, will be the speaker, accompanied by the Myers Park Children's Choir. The Memorial United Presbyterian Church Children's Choir and the C. N. Jenkins Children's Choir will also be featured.

The public is urged to attend. The church is located at 1421 Statesville Ave. Rev. George C. Goodman is pastor.

FEED MY SHEEP
The Feed My Sheep Church Ministry will host a Victory Day celebration banquet on Saturday, November 23, from 5:30 until 9:30 p.m. at McDonald's Cafeteria. Donations are $25 per person. Discounts are available for couples, partners and children.

This day of celebration marks a significant accomplishment for the church's outreach to the less fortunate families in the local and surrounding community. Proceeds will benefit the outreach ministry.

Rev. Ann Williams, pastor of Feed My Sheep, will deliver a brief message on "The Successful Formula of Life: How to Handle Disappointment." Other participants will be Wayne Hammond, manager of WQCC, and radio personality Wallace Kitt. A host of choirs from the Charlotte area will render music.

Call 596-9032 today to get your tickets as space will be limited.

The Feed My Sheep Church Ministry is located at 4500 North Tryon Mall, suite 14-A.

The workshops, "Communications in the Church," and "Meetings that Count" will be sponsored by Faith Christian Methodist Episcopal Church and the Young Adult Council on Saturday, November 23, beginning at 10 a.m. A $3 registration fee will include the cost of the workshop and a meal.

Faith Christian is located at 457 Wellingford St. Rev. Willie Sturgess is pastor.

MEMORIAL

The annual Thanksgiving Day worship of Gethsemane AME Zion, Memorial Presbyterian and Mt. Carmel Baptist congregations will be held on Thursday, November 28, 10 p.m., at Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Dr. George E. Battle Jr., pastor of Gethsemane AME Zion, will preach for this service.

Members of these three churches invite you to join in the worship.

Memorial is located at 2600 Beatties Ford Rd., Rev. Edward B. Newberry, pastor.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

Jehovah's Witnesses from Charlotte and surrounding communities will be attending a weekend circuit assembly at the Charlotte Convention Center November 30 and December 1. Scheduled talks, interviews, and demonstrations over the two days will highlight the theme: "Doing Our Part in Glorifying God." Practical ways to worship God in this modern world will be presented, along with the reasons for doing so.

Special attention will be given to the need for global peace. Convention chairman Robert J. Hurst says this is appropriate because millions of people worldwide desire peace. Loud cries for global peace are now being sounded by political, social, religious, and other concerned groups. There is evidence, however, in the Bible that peace on earth is assured only through God's Kingdom and is a reality for this generation. Thus, it is not only practical but also urgent that we now look to God.

The public is especially invited to hear this subject discussed at the convention's main session Sunday, December 1, at 2 p.m. featuring the theme: "Global Peace - From What Source?"

No admission is charged, and no collection plates are passed.

BELMONT PARK

Belmont Park United Methodist Church and Kilgo United Methodist Church will join together for a Thanksgiving Service at Belmont Park United Methodist Church, 1303 Hawthorne Lane, on Tuesday, November 26, beginning at 4 p.m. with a pancake supper in the Fellowship Hall.

A service of worship will immediately follow in the sanctuary with Rev. J. Michael Leatherwood, minister of Kilgo United Methodist Church preaching. Assisting with the service will be Rev. Dayle G. Grob, minister of Belmont Park United Methodist Church. The Bel-
