After the LaRouche candidates' stunning victories in Illinois, will blacks join the LaRouche bandwagon? Veteran journalist Vernon Jarrett (above) of the Chicago Sun-Times warns blacks against supporting this political extremist group on the Democratic Party ticket. The upcoming edition of "Tony Brown's Journal" takes TV to the people to get the truth about blacks and the LaRouche Democrats. America's longest-running and top-ranked Black-Affairs television series, has been sponsored by Pepsi-Cola Company for 11 consecutive years.

Can LaRouche Democrats Win The Black Vote?

By Tony Brown
Special To The Post
Political extremist Lyndon LaRouche, leader of the controversial National Democratic Policy Committee, has again surfaced in the national spotlight after two of his followers won Illinois state-wide elections as candidates on the Democratic Party ticket.

Even more surprising, Taylor, Rice
In Concert

A concert featuring James Taylor and Daryle Ryce will be held Saturday, May 31, for the benefit of Women's Action for Nuclear Disarmament (WAND).

The concert will be held in Dana Auditorium, Queens College campus, at 8 p.m. Tickets are available at Queens College Bookstore, New World Records, Camelot Records, and Shazada.

The event is being held in conjunction with the fourth annual WAND Membership Conference, which took place in Charlotte from May 30 to June 1. Concert ticket prices are $10 for conference participants and $20 for the general public.

however, is the fact that the LaRouche candidates won a majority of the votes in predominately black sections of Chicago. Moreover, some top positions in LaRouche's organization are held by blacks. Why?

Why are blacks voting for candidates from an organization whose leader has been quoted as having "a bizarre agenda" and "menacing manner." LaRouche's policies and tactics in the recent Illinois election were clearly aimed at the black community.

Will black interests be served or exploited?

On the upcoming edition of Tony Brown's Journal, "Can LaRouche Democrats Win The Black Vote?" Tony Brown takes TV to the people in a frank, up-front discussion before a live audience to get the truth about blacks and the LaRouche Democrats.

Tony Brown's Journal, the nation's longest-running and top-ranked Black-Affairs television series, has been sponsored by Pepsi-Cola Company for 11 consecutive years. Televised on public television (PBS), the program will be seen in this area on WNSC-30 at 10:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 15.
