

Four Receive NCCU Alumni Scholarships

By Joe Brown
Post Staff Writer

Four Charlotte high school seniors were selected as recipients of a North Carolina Central University Scholarship. The seniors are Jonquil Thomas, Lorna Brown, Trinitia Harrison, and Brian McCorkle.

These outstanding honorees will all attend UNCC in the fall.

The $500 scholarship was awarded to the seniors for their outstanding achievements, activities and academic performances.

Jonquil Thomas of Independence High School is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rev. John Thomas of Paloverde Lane. She is a member of the Spanish Club, Keyettes, NAACP, Squad Leader of the Law Enforcement Explorer Post 247, American Field Services (AFS), Governor's Page, Who's Who, and color guard. Through her activities she holds a 3.3 average. Thomas plans to major in Criminal Justice and minor in Spanish.

"I'm very proud of myself and I am still holding on to the progress. Hang on to your goals. If at all possible don't let anything stop you to reach your goals," states Thomas.

Lorna Brown holds a 3.4 average and is a member of the Ambassador Service Club, co-president of Tri-M, president of the Future

Business Leaders of America, Office Occupation, Inner Club Counselor, and Orchestra. While at NCCU, Brown will study accounting. "I am going to college to not only to achieve higher education endeavors, but also achieve the goals to help others help as well as yourself," expresses Brown. She attends West Charlotte High School.

Myers Park recipient Trinitia Harrison is a 4.13 average student and the daughter of Mrs. Shirley Harrison. She is an active member in the Keyettes, the student council, National Honor Society and volleyball team, United Volleyball Association and Who's Who honoree.

Aisha Taylor, the daughter of Robert and Sheila Taylor, was recently crowned Little Miss Las Amigas 1986 during the pageant. Aisha is a student at Dilworth Elementary School. She enjoys biking and dancing.

Northwest Babe Ruth

The game of baseball continued in the Northwest Babe Ruth League last Saturday with the opening of the 13-15 age boys' season. In the action at Revolution Field, the Cardinals nipped West Charlotte Optimist, 4-3, while the Royals' boys out-scored West Trade boys, 15-3.

Baseball in the Bambino Division highlighted West Charlotte defeating Plaza No. 2, 10-6, at Briarwood School and the Royals out-batted McCrorey YMCA, 18-2, at Revolution Field.
