

King's & Queen's Nightspot Celebrates Its Tenth Birthday

King's & Queen's just had a birthday. At a mere 10 years old, King's & Queen's has deservedly earned the reputation on being one of Charlotte's hottest nightspots. Mayor Harvey Gantt was on hand to give special congratulations to Nathaniel and Lucille Black, owners of the club. The night was just a special night altogether, especially with folks like Dr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Webber, Dr. Mildred Baxter Davis, Sarah Stevenson, Jim Richardson, Michael Todd, Doretha Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Roddey, Mr. and Mrs. William Little, Sarah Coleman, Jackie Harrison of Las Vegas, along with a host of other friends and relatives there.

ATLANTIC CITY
A few members of Steele Creek AME Zion and Pleasant Hill Baptist Churches made a journey to Atlantic City. All arrangements were made by Ethel Ervin. The word has it that the buffet style food and the free shows made the trip more than worthwhile.
