Congratulations to Jim Davis who is the new head boys' basketball coach at West Mecklenburg High School. Jim won 69 games in six seasons as a college coach at Allen University in Columbia, S.C. He was 69-37.

He has been a girls' softball and basketball coach at South Mecklenburg for the past two years.

He is an Allen graduate and will teach weight training and physical education at West.

This is a great move for the Indians who have not had a winning program in quite a while.

Just when they were on the verge with Milton Moore a couple of years ago, he broke his finger and ruined the team's chances. In the same month, point guard Derrick McGowan who was a sophomore, broke his arm and the Indians' chances dimmed.

Best of luck to good friend John Day who leaves the West Mecklenburg program in good shape. I have not seen many coaches who care about their players as much as John did.

Down at Olympic, the rumors have it that coach Dave Johnson has stepped down or moved up as the athletic director. Confirmation is that he did and the new coach at Olympic is Chanslar Chavis a Johnson C. Smith standout who was coaching the boys' junior varsity at the school.

Cornered at his alma mater recently, Chavis confirmed that he will be the new head boys' basketball coach at my alma mater, Olympic High School.

Best of luck to Chavis and the Trojans who will feature a strong talent in Patrick Floyd next year. He is the brother of Derrick "Decky" Floyd and is a big reason things will be looking up for the Trojans.

Pre-season All CCAA football picks include two from the Charlotte area. They are Robert Green from North Carolina Central and John Coles from Winston-Salem State.

Green is a 6-2, 200-pound senior; Coles is 6-3 and 200 pounds and a senior.

Green attended Myers Park High School in Charlotte and has been a first team All CCAA performer for the past two seasons. He was third in the CCAA with 46 receptions for 631 yards and two touchdowns. He has caught passes for over 100 yards four times in his career. He has a career high seven catches three times—twice last year against Elizabeth City and Johnson C. Smith. He has caught at least one pass in each of the last 30 NCCU games. He is ranked in the top 100 in the CCAA in catches.

The Eagles of North Carolina Central recruit heavily in the Charlotte area and once again they were successful.

Prized catches were quarterback Ricky Huntley of East Mecklenburg, quarterback Jeffrey Robbins of Independence, running back Darrell Clark, defensive back Harry Fuller of Independence, guard Brian McCorkle, tackle Clarence Ford, cornerback Gerald Mack of Garinger, and tackle Hayzon Grier of North Mecklenburg.

The Eagles are looking for good years from Melvin Gaddy, a 6-2, 205-pound senior from South Mecklenburg. Gaddy is a defensive end who has 4.7 speed and led the team with five fumble recoveries last year. He was All County at South Mecklenburg.

Tony Lindsey is another South Mecklenburgian. He finished in the top 10 in the CCAA with interceptions and had 44 tackles.

Robert Massey had a great freshman year with 59 tackles and broke up four passes.

Eric Montgomery is the center. His father Al was a quarterback at NCCU.

Rodney Rivers is a senior standout. He is a tremendous threat on kickoff returns.

Outstanding Johnson C. Smith Golden Bulls from the Charlotte area.

The Golden Bulls will feature some outstanding local talent in Billy Maurice Banks. Banks was defensive player of the year for the Golden Bulls in 1985. He had 35 unassisted and 42 assisted tackles in nine games. He was MVP in football and most improved in baseball in high school. He anchors the defensive line for the Golden Bulls.

Anthony Byers was Second Team All CCAA last year. He is 6-1 and 189. He was the most improved defensive player in 1985.

He had 31 unassisted and 16 assisted tackles last year. He recovered a fumble and ran for a 98-yard touchdown against Fayetteville State in the 1st game of the 1985 Golden Bulls' season. He also intercepted the infamous Earl Harvey of North Carolina Central and its back for 39 yards.

Tim Newman hopes to be embarking on his biggest career ever. He rushed for 435 yards last year. Last year he had runs of 75 yards against North Carolina A&T and 57 against Virginia State for touchdowns.

Jackie Wilkes is a 6-0, 227-pound outside linebacker who will be called upon to anchor the Bulls' defense.

Up at Hampton University, Charlotte boys figuring prominently in the Pirates' plans are sophomore kicker Craig Barber, freshman defensive tackle Jon Anthony, offensive tackle Leroy Diggs and linebacker Tony Hamer.

Harry Jeeter Scores 73 To Win Golf Tournament

By Joe Brown
Post Staff Writer

The fight against Sickle Cell continued as Harry Jeeter shot a 73 in the second round of the two-day Budweiser Par Buster's Open to capture the win this past Saturday and Sunday. The tournament was held at Eastwood Golf Course and raised money for the Association For Sickle Cell Disease for Metrolina, Inc.

The tournament attracted over 120 golfers to this year's open, which included two junior players and five players that were sponsored. Action ended the first day with Harry Jeeter leading with a 66, James Boulter with a 69, Tom Polito shooting a 69, and Phil Neely 70.

Winners of the Championship flight provided exciting play for both days as Harry Jeeter finished with the win, 66-73-139. Tom Polito placed second with 69-72-141; Phil Neely placed third, 70-72-142, and last year's champ Donald Littlejohn shot a 72-74-145 for fourth.

In the first flight, Charles Williams stroked a 78-71 for 149 total to win. Leroy Roseboro came in second with 76-74-150; William Funderburke was third, 79-74-153 and Jimmy Gaston placed fourth, 78-73-153.

The second flight winner, Larry Dean, putted a 74-81-155 with second place Frank Sibert closely following with a 75-81-156. Third place golfer William Gill shot an 81-74-160 and fourth place Robert Greenwood scored 81-79-160.

John Love, tournament chairman was pleased with this year's competition and the operations of the tournament.

"It was one of our better tournaments. This was the second largest we've had for the Sickle Cell Foundation," states Love.

"Everything went well. I especially like to thank the Eastwood Golf Course officials for letting us use the course and facilities for the two days. Also a great thanks and appreciation goes out to the Sickle Cell staff, June Gill, Dorothy Triplet, Charlotte Myers, and Peggy Beckwith for their support. Other appreciations go out to Terry Funderburke and Ruth Smith for keeping the scores and Bill Fox of Budweiser and William "Speed" Jant."

The remaining three flight winners are as follows: Third Flight: 1st Tim Harris, 85-76-161; (2nd) Donald Mackey, 85-81-166; (3rd) Richard Collins, 85-79-164; (4th) a tie between Robert Martin; and (5th) Willie Thompson, 86-81-167. Fourth Flight: (1st) Paul Cunningham Jr., 85-89-174; (2nd) Sam Stevenson, 85-89-174; (3rd) Albert Johnson, 85-90-175; (4th) a tie between Clifford Butler and George Pettice, 89-87-176. Fifth flight: (1st) Bobby Stroupe, 95-87-182; (2nd) Walter Burgers, 96-91-187; (3rd) Olin Grier, 92-96-188; (4th) Don Queener, 94-94-188.

This year's tournament attracted players from Asheville, Monroe, Gastonia, Spartanburg, SC; Orangeburg, SC; Atlanta, Ga.; Baltimore, Md.; Washington, D.C.; Cleveland, Tn.; Lancaster, SC; College Park, Ga.; Knoxville, Tn.; and Columbia, S.C.

The Association of Sickle Cell Disease for Metrolina, Inc. has benefitted again from the worthwhile fundraiser. Peggy Beckwith heads off the association with strong spirits.

"The weather was favorable and the players were enthusiastic. There was a lot of planning that went into this tournament and I'm sure it went reasonably well," Beckwith remarked.

Closest-to-the-hole was one feature to the tournament. The winners on Saturday were Donald Littlejohn, Price Cathy, Johnny Williams, Donnell Davis, and William Gill. Sunday's winners were George Williams, Carnell Manns, Theo Williams, Roosevelt Swift, and Robert Greenwood.

Fitness Classes

Physical fitness can be achieved in many ways, and Central Piedmont Community College offers several options for attaining those personal goals this fall.

A complete assessment of your present physical condition is a good place to start. This opportunity is available through "Personal Fitness Analysis," a course in which participants are given a series of tests to determine their body condition.

NOTICE

Additional Community Development Funds And Projected Use Of Funds

The City of Charlotte will receive an additional Community Development Block Grant in the approximate amount of $590,000 this year for the Community Development Program. This will make the City's total amended grant $3,460,000 for FY87. Program income in the amount of $627,031 will bring the total program funds to $4,087,031. The Community Development Block Grant is a major source of money made available by the federal government to assist local communities in achieving the primary objectives of developing and maintaining decent housing and expanding economic opportunities, principally and primarily to benefit persons of low and moderate income.

Community Development funds may be used for the following types of activities in those instances where other program requirements are met:

- Acquisition of property for rehabilitation, preservation, clearance, or other public purpose.
- Public improvements/facilities including: parks and playgrounds; street improvements, including curbs and gutters and sidewalks.
- Rehabilitation of buildings and improvements including assistance to privately owned residential and non-residential properties; public or private entity owned or acquired properties for use or resale in the provision of housing; public housing modernization.
- Economic development including the acquisition of property for economic development; assistance to neighborhood based non-profit organizations, local development corporations, and small business investment companies under certain circumstances to carry out neighborhood revitalization and economic development activities.
- Public services including those concerned with health, education and employment.

The above are examples of eligible activities and do not constitute a complete list of all the criteria for qualification as eligible under the Community Development Program.

A copy of the department's Amendment to the Proposed Statement of Community Development Objectives and Projected Use of Funds is available at the following locations:
