

Cordelia Washington
...Now Mrs. Jackson

Cordelia Washington Is Bride Of Darryl Jackson

Cordelia Vonette Washington and Darryl Anthony Jackson recently exchanged vows of love and faith.

The ceremony took place at Moore's Sanctuary AME Zion Church. Rev. John Jackson, the groom's father officiated the wedding.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a formal gown of organza with Alencon lace trim. Straight, long sleeves and a fitted bodice with Alencon lace complemented the gown. The gown featured a draped skirt with a triple tiered lace flounce and a chapel train.

For her headpiece, the bride chose a matching tiara of Alencon lace with a waltz length veil and a blusher.

As her maid of honor, the bride chose Helen Jones. Her other bridesmaids were Dandy Hill of Fayetteville, Sonya Jackson, the groom's sister, and Yolanda Washington of Fayetteville, the bride's cousin.

Little Miss Sheila Seaberry, the bride's cousin, also of Fayetteville, was the flower girl.

The groom chose John Alexander as his best man. Assisting him were Gregory and Larry Jackson, brothers of the groom, Sp-4 Elton Washington of Fort Bragg, the bride's brother, David Leeper, Wayne Meeks, the groom's cousin, Earl McLaurin, Jr., the bride's cousin, James Sadler, cousin of the groom, and Dennis Washington, the bride's brother.

Master Jermaine Jackson, the groom's nephew, was the ring-bearer.

Music for the ceremony was provided by organist Jacqueline Pharr and soloists Celeste McCullough, Bernice Moore and Alan Richmond. The daughter of Reverend and Mrs. Evelt Washington, the bride is a graduate of UNC State University. After receiving her BA in psychology, she relocated to Charlotte where she is employed as a fraud investigator at the Mecklenburg County Department of Social Services.

A graduate of West Charlotte High School and Wingate College, the groom received his BA degree in the field of psychology. He is an automotive consultant and president of Plaza Hills Auto Parts Store.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held at McDonald's Cafeteria.

For their honeymoon the couple spent four days at Hilton Head and eight days in Hawaii.

It was a gala and festive affair at the annual awards banquet of the National Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star and Imperial Grand Court, Daughter of Isis (Scottish Rite Affiliation), which was held recently. Lucie L. Beverly, grand worthy matron of the Elizabeth Grand Chapter, O.E.S., served as toastmistress. The audience enjoyed vocal and instrumental selections from Keith Hill and Sara McLawler, who is the assistant national organist, O.E.S. Once entertained and fed, the audience was challenged by the guest speaker, Mrs. Jean Webber who reminded them of the charges they had to keep. Another highlight of the banquet was the presentation of awards. Several institutions were the recipient of the organizations generosity. Among them were the American Cancer Society, the National Kidney Foundation, Johnson C. Smith University, Sickle Cell Anemia Detection and Research, Thompson Children's Home, William and Julia Fitzpatrick Memorial Fund YMCA and the Dr. Martin L. King Jr., Center for Non-Violent Social Change. Remarks were then given by Arthur Enoch and John Burns, the most powerful sovereign grand commander.
