

Harold Kushner In Charlotte

WTVI, the local public television station, and TO LIFE, the Charlotte organization that helps people deal with grief and loss experiences, are sponsoring a return engagement of Dr. Harold Kushner, the best-selling author whose book was the subject of WTVI's production WHEN BAD THINGS HAPPEN TO GOOD PEOPLE. Kushner will be in Charlotte on September 17 at Queens College

Dana Auditorium. He will speak on the topic that is also the subject of his new book, When All You've Ever Wanted Isn't Enough.

In his internationally acclaimed bestseller, When Bad Things Happen To Good People, Kushner addressed coming to terms with the inequities and tragedies of life.

When Kushner first appeared in Charlotte, over

1,000 people came to hear him speak at Owens Auditorium in March, 1984. TO LIFE expects the turnout this year to be even higher.

Tickets for Kushner's presentation are $10 in advance, $12 at the door. For more information or to purchase tickets, call the TO LIFE office at 704-332-LIFE, or write TO LIFE, P. O. Box 9354, Charlotte, NC 28299.

Audition With "Les And Bess"

The Little Theatre of Charlotte will be conducting Pre-audition and Pre-production workshops for the upcoming production of Breakfast With Les and Bess on Sunday, September 14, and Monday, September 15, at 7 p.m.

Designed to encourage newcomers and prepare potential cast members for the audition process, the workshops are offered free of charge. A detailed discussion of the script, author, director's concept and production design will be given to participants.

Breakfast With Les and Bess is Lee Kalcheim's comedy about a radio talk show couple in the early 1960s. Roles are available for four men and two women of varying ages. Auditions will be on Sunday and Monday, September 21-22 at 7 p.m. Production dates are November 6-23.

If you are in need for further information, call the Little Theatre office at 376-3777.
