By James Cuthbertson
Post Sports Writer

Derrick McGowan ran for 148 yards against South Meck 21-0 and two touchdowns as the Indians have gotten off to their best start in years.

The win gave the Indians a chance at the Tri-County crown and playoff spot. McGowan hit only five of his 12 passes for 68 yards, but put the Indians ahead in the first quarter with his longest throw of the night, a 29 yarder to Lawrence Howell.

Derrick's touchdowns were on runs of 29 and 18 yards in the final quarter.

He is this week's Charlotte Post Player of the Week. Ray Hughes also ran for 79 yards as West outgained South 316-156 in total offense.
