

Stephanie Grier, Norman Harris Exchange Marital Vows

Two lives were made one as Stephanie Grier and Norman E. Harris Jr. exchanged marital vows.

The 3 p.m. ceremony took place at Memorial Presbyterian Church and Rev. Edward Newberry and Rev. John Leak of New St. John Baptist Church officiated the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her brother, Curtis Grier, the bride was eloquently dressed in a formal satin gown enhanced with a deep front and back V-shaped neckline. The back waistline was accented with a full satin bow. The long, fitted sleeves were designed with French imported Alencon lace, seed pearls, and iridescents. The skirt cascaded into a cathedral-length train with Alencon lace motifs, further enhanced by seed pearls, iridescents and a deep scalloped Alencon lace border.

For her headdress the bride chose a Victorian, fingertip veil which was handmade by the bride's aunt, Delessie Collins.

As matron of honor the bride selected her sister, Frankie Pendergrass. The bride's cousin, Raiford Durham of Columbia, SC, was the maid of honor. Millicent Howell of Burnswick, NJ, and LaDonna Coefield, the bride's cousin, were the remaining bridesmaids.

Little Miss Jeannette Grier, the bride's niece, was the flower girl.

Kevin Harris, the groom's brother, was the best man. Acolytes were James Pendergrass of Atlanta, GA, and the groom's cousin, Tony Russell, of Kannapolis. The junior groomsman was Rashawn Stark.

Safe Drive

Safe Drive is an award-winning volunteer program that provides free, confidential rides home to Mecklenburg County teens every Friday and Saturday night between 10 p.m. and 2 a.m. Safe Drive is currently seeking program volunteers. Weekday and weekend positions are available and free training is provided. Parent-teen and husband-wife teams are encouraged to apply.

Join Safe Drive and help save a teenager from becoming another drunk driving statistic. For more information, or to volunteer, call 332-SAFE today. Stay alive!

Mrs. Norman E. Harris

the bride's cousin.

Groomsmen were the groom's cousin, Gary Hingleton of High Point, N.C., the bride's cousin, Reginald Mauney of Madison, NC, Tony Boulter and Otis Wilkes.

Master Brian W. Ellis of Franklin Lakes, NJ, was the ring bearer. And the bridal mascot for the ceremony was LaTreice Walton of Riverdale, GA.

Providing music for the ceremony was organist, Theodore Avery Jr., trumpeter, Stanley Graham and soloist Kevin Harris.

A graduate of A&T State University, the bride is the daughter of Ann Grier of New York City, NY. She is employed as a personnel assistant with the US Postal Service.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Harris Sr., the groom graduated from Winston-Salem State University. He is employed with Florida Steel Inc.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the church and a dinner party was held at the Duke's Club.

They were all there. Friends, church members, relatives all came to celebrate the 98th birthday of Mary Reid, a member of Moore's Sanctuary AME Zion Church. Known affectionately to everyone as "Mama Reid," Mrs. Reid enjoyed the gifts, the kisses and the well-wishes of those in attendance. In the brief program that was held the members of Mrs. Reid's family were acknowledged. Six generations were represented. Rev. George Jackson, pastor of Moore's Sanctuary made a few remarks and then it was time to enjoy the ice cream, cake and punch prepared for the festive occasion.
