With James Cuthbertson

North Mecklenburg retired the jersey of Andrea Stinson, the "Parade" magazine girls' high school "Player of the Year" and "Miss Basketball" for the Charlotte Post. The number 32 jersey is gone forever. She is quite a gal.

Overheard in Atlanta recently conjectures on the new Charlotte NBA franchise. One man commented that the city had finally arrived and while sitting at the Atlanta Braves/Philadelphia Phillies game, I could not help but wonder what it would be like to have major league baseball and football in the Charlotte area. The time has come to get to work on a multi-purpose stadium designed for football and baseball use. People sell Charlotte short, but it rises out of the foothills of the Piedmont like an oasis. We need more dreamers like George Shinn.

With an NBA franchise in Charlotte, Greensboro, Raleigh and Winston-Salem would be great areas for franchises in the Continental Basketball League that could give the Charlotte franchise players for the rough years ahead for the NBA expansion team.

Congratulations to East Mecklenburg goalie Cathy Howard who blanked South Mecklenburg 5-0. Page Strickland scored two goals as Myers Park beat West Charlotte, 2-1. Amy Broome scored two goals as West Mecklenburg beat Harding, 2-1. Becky Rowell scored two goals as Garinger beat Independence, 3-2. Tammy Walter scored both of Olympic's goals in a 2-0 win over North Mecklenburg.

BILL JOHNSON AWARD

Every year in honor of Mr. Bill Johnson, the Charlotte Post gives the "Bill Johnson Award" that goes to the outstanding athlete, male and female, at the Charlotte area schools.

This year, we are asking that you send nominations to James Cuthbertson of any student/athletes whom you deem worthy of the honor.

The committee will begin deliberations soon. Some nominees have already been received and the names of these individuals will be published in the Post next week.

The athletes must have an average of 3.0 or above and participate in at least one sport.

What luck for the Charlotte area. Reassigning the schools to different conferences has resulted in more Charlotte schools making the playoffs than ever before.

One has to applaud the successes of Harding, West Charlotte, and North Mecklenburg in the Tri-County and Independence, Myers Park and East Mecklenburg in the Southwestern 4A.
