

Cabo Frio Comes To Town

Finally recovered from Jonathan's Jazz Musicians' Jam Session? Well, get ready for the sounds of Cabo Frio, coming to Jonathan's Friday and Saturday, August 14 and 16. Show times are 9 p.m. and 11 p.m. each night. Tickets are $10.

If you're not quite sure if this is a concert you want to catch read a few of the following reviews: "...A spicy blend of jazz, rock, pop, Latin and R&B elements. Lively and eclectic." -Mike Joyce Washington Post; "Rock, jazz and latin elements are freely and energetically mixed together in a sensuous, simmering blend that is right on the money." -Frank White Atlanta Constitution; "...moves into new territory...solid pop influences...should fit snugly into several formats." Billboard Album review: Cabo Frio.

HEZEKIAH
The Hezekiah Alexander Homesite and History Museum announces classes will begin for docents (volunteer guides) at the Museum, Tuesdays from 9:30 a.m. - noon, beginning September 8. After completing the course, the volunteers, dressed in 18th century style clothing, will give tours of the Homesite for adult and student groups. Men and women who can give three half days each month and who have a genuine interest in local history are encouraged to apply. A reception and introductory visit will be held for prospective docents on September 8 at the Hezekiah Alexander Homesite and

READING FESTIVAL
"Go To Books", the Summer Reading Program of the Public Library of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County will end with a festival at Independence Park at 7th and Hawthorne Sts. on Monday, August 10 from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Young readers, ages six to 12 from the Main Library and the 18 Mecklenburg County branch libraries are invited to attend. Children can participate in crafts and active games, including parachute Rollerball, Soap Bubble Fun and Hanimals (hand painting). Entertainment and sports demonstrations will include the Mike Magic Show - a half hour of comedy and illusion, juggler Steve Langley, Mark West and his marionettes, the harlequin Mimes, Double Dutch jump ropers, the Charlotte Fencing Club, and Shintaido, the art of movement and life expression, with Gloria Springs. The event is free and open to the public.

DISCOVERY PLACE
Antique ladders, hats, jackets and nozzles are just some of the items included in a new exhibit at Discovery Place now open to the public. The exhibit was developed as part of the Charlotte Fire Department Centennial Celebration and contrasts the old with the new to illustrate Charlotte's fire service tradition.

In addition to antique and modern fire equipment, a pictorial history of fire fighting in Charlotte gives visitors the opportunity to visually trace advances in fire fighting made during the last 100 years. For more information call 372-6261.

ORPHANS
Metrolina's Off-Broadway Theatre Company, SATURDAY NIGHT LEFTOVERS will be putting on the production of "Orphans", a weird, wonderful thriller filled with suspense, pathos and a generous dash of humor. Opening night is Friday, August 14. Other performances are 8:15 p.m. - August 15, 16, 20, 21, 22, 27, 28 and 29. The play will See Orphan on Page 6B
