Belinda Jackson

Belinda Jackson Crowned Miss JCSU

Homecoming '87 at Johnson C. Smith University is underway. The grand festivities began last Sunday with Coronation of Ms. Belinda F. Jackson as Miss JCSU for 1987-88.

Belinda is a 23-year-old, senior Communication Arts major. The Pinehurst, North Carolina, native plans to produce gospel recording artists and promote cultural activities in the community following graduation. In the meantime she is actively involved with Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., the JCSU Drama Guild, Student Christian Association, and the Student Government Association. Belinda is also a talented singer and recently performed at the Gaston County United Negro College Fund Sunday observance. She also enjoys traveling and cooking.

Miss Johnson C. Smith's 1st attendant is Miss Tammie Galloway and Little Miss JCSU is six-year-old Nikki Alexander.

Homecoming Activities Fill J.C. Smith's Slate

Homecoming is a very special time for students, alumni, faculty and friends of JCSU with a full schedule of activities planned. Two of the most popular events include the Homecoming Parade and football game. This year the line up for the parade will begin Saturday morning at 8:30 a.m. on 4th Street and Summit. The parade will begin at 10 a.m. and travel from 4th Street to 3rd, then from 3rd Street to Kings Boulevard and then Kings Drive onto Charlotte Memorial Stadium.

The football game will place the Golden Bulls of JCSU on the gridiron against the Eagles of North Carolina Central in a 1 p.m. game at Memorial Stadium. Homecoming Center for JCSU alumni and friends is the Charlotte Marriott City Center in downtown Charlotte. The full slate of activities also include an Alumni Career Day and a Unity Pep Rally where standard attire is anything Blue and Gold, the University colors. There is also a new feature added this year and it is the Newly Wed Game being sponsored by the Student Government Association.

Rev. Meacham Conducts Worship Service

The annual Homecoming Worship Service will be held on Sunday, November 8, 11 a.m., in the University Chapel on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University.

Speaker for the occasion will be Rev. Robert Meachem, Moderator of Catawba Presbytery and minister of Cedar Grove Presbyterian Church, Cabarrus County.

Rev. Meachem is from Broken Bow, Oklahoma. He attended Mary Holmes Junior College, received a BA degree from Johnson C. Smith University and a master of Divinity at Johnson C. Smith Seminary. He did further study at the University of Michigan.

He has taught at Mary Holmes Junior College and in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg schools. He served as one of the top supervisors with the Charlotte Park and Recreation Commission. He also had several pastorates here in Charlotte and in Atlantic City,

New Jersey. Rev. Meachem is married to the former Mary Ardrey and they have seven children.
