

Dinner Theatre Comes To Afro Center

Just in time for the holidays, dinner theatre comes to the Afro American Cultural Center. GM Productions will present L.J. Carlino's one-act play "Snow Angel" in December.

A bittersweet play about love, "Snow Angel" is recommended for mature audiences. It features Pamela D. Reid and Jesse Hamilton and is directed by De-foy Glenn.

Presented as a special holiday offering, "Snow Angel" will be preceded by a full course meal in the AACC Multi-Purpose Room. The play will be acted out in the Attic Theatre. Reservations are required for the dinner theatre package at $10 per person.

Performances are Friday, December 11 at 7 pm; Saturday, December 12 at 7 pm and Sunday December 13 at 5 pm.

For reservations or information call 374-1560.

...There's more!!

The Afro American Cultural Center will present its 8th annual Jazz Christmas Luncheon on Thursday, December 10, beginning at noon. The gala affair will feature Daryle Ryce and Gerard Benson in the Attic Theatre, TIMROD on the entry level and Trio Grande on the lower gallery. Santa will make a visit and door prizes will be given away. Tickets are $10. This event is being sponsored by Harvey Ganit, Carla DuPuy and the board of directors of the Afro-American Cultural Center.

...Yes, there's more!!

An opening Reception and exhibition of recent paintings by I.J. reddy will open on Friday, December 4 from 6-8 p.m. The exhibition will continue through December 31. "Pertinence" and "for the brothers of my youth" are two special selected pieces that will be available.

CARIBBEAN

The Caribbean Cultural Association, a non-profit organization will hold its second annual New Year's Eve Dinner Dance on December 31 at 8:30 p.m. Venue will be Woodlawn Holiday Inn located at I-77 and Woodlawn Rd. GREAT PERFORMANCES

On "Great Performances" Friday, December 11 at 9 p.m. the play "Asinamali" will be presented. "Asinamali", set in a South African prison features five black inmates who tell in story and song of the segregation, poverty and humiliation inherent in the apartheid system. This dramatic presentation can be seen on channel 58.

HEZEKIAH

The deadline "Doorways to Heaven", an exhibit presently on display at the Hezekiah Alexander Home site and History Museum has been extended to January 3, 1988.

"Because there has been a great amount of public interest in the exhibit," stated curator, Ray Stigmon, "Dr. Ed Clark, the artist responsible for the works, has graciously allowed us to extend the exhibit through the end of the year."

The exhibit includes 30 gravestone rubbings in a variety of colors from New England and the Carolinas. Several of the rubbings are from local church graveyards.

The exhibit can be seen during regular museum hours Tuesday-Friday from 10 am to 5 pm and on Saturdays and Sundays from 2 pm to 5 pm. Admission to the museum and grounds is free.

NATURE MUSEUM

The Nature Museum is 40 years old and they want you to help them celebrate. On Saturday, December 5, the Museum will be celebrating all day long. The Nature Museum is located at 1658 Sterling Road and admission will be free. Popal and birthday cake will be served. You can enjoy our 40 year memorabilia of scrap books, pictures and slide shows.

Children will love "Wake Up Bear It's Christmas", "Star For Santa's Tree" and "The Dinosaur Who Wondered Who He Was."

CHARLOTTE

CHILDREN'S CHOIR

Ring in the season with the sound of children's voices-join the Charlotte Children's Choir at Queens College for their second annual holiday concerts on Sunday, December 13 at 3 pm and Monday, December 14 at 7:30 pm.

Presented in Belk Chapel on the Queens College campus, the eighty members of the Choir will perform seasonal music under the direction of Dr. Elizabeth Kimble. Traditional carols, Christmas spirituals and selections from Benjamin Britten's Ceremony of Carols will be featured.

A limited number of new members will be accepted in January. For concert ticket information call 337-2248 or 337-2213.

ORATORIO SINGERS

The Charlotte Youth Oratorio Singers and the Youth Symphony of the Carolinas will combine their talents to present a special holiday concert on Sunday, December 13 at 4:30 pm. The concert will be held in Dana Auditorium in the E.H. Little Fine Arts Building on the Queens College Campus.

The Youth Oratorio Singers, with 75 voices and the Youth Symphony of the Carolinas with 95 members ages 12-18, will present a variety of Christmas music, including GLORIA by Antonio Vivaldi, and Robert Shaw's THE MANY MOODS OF CHRISTMAS.

CHARLOTTE'S WEB

Your favorite spider is now the star of a play, adapted from a story named by the Children's Literature Association as "the best American children's book of the past 200 years." Joseph Robinette wrote this adaptation of E.B. White's classic story.

Performance times are: Fridays, December 11 & 18 at 7:30 pm; Saturdays, December 12 & 19 at 11 am and 1 pm; Sundays, December 13 & 20 at 1 and 3 pm.

MAGICWORD

HOW TO PLAY: Read the list of words. Look at the puzzle. You'll find these words in all directions — horizontally, vertically, diagonally, backwards. Draw a circle around each letter of a word found in the puzzle, then strike it off the list. Circling it will show a letter has been used but will leave it visible should it also form part of another word. Find the ten words first. When letters of all listed words are circled, you'll have the given number of letters left over. They'll spell out your MAGICWORD.

WHEN IT'S TAILOR MADE, you can't rush it. Not if you want perfection. Because a good tailor has to take care of every detail. Tuck by tuck. Stitch by stitch. And when he's through, that suit has a fit made just for you.

There's the same kind of commitment here at Jack Daniel's. We still make it the slow, old Tennessee way. No cutting corners. And although it takes a little extra time, we can promise you a smooth, mellow whiskey with a custom-made taste. It's masterfully created for any occasion. Experience it.

It takes time to be the best. Jack Daniels.
