

TV-42's Outreach Looks At Egyptian Subjects

Since the coming of the Ramesses exhibit to the Mint Museum in October, Charlotte residents have become fascinated with the mystique of ancient Egypt. In January, OUTREACH, one of the WTVI's public affairs programs, presents a four-part series that explores the African origins of ancient Egypt. Based on a series of lectures presented at the Afro-American Cultural Center in Charlotte, the four-part OUTREACH series explores the African contributions to the development of Egyptian philosophy, religion, culture, technology, sociology and art. Each program features a nationally-recognized, Afro-American scholar who takes viewers on a fascinating and provocative journey through Africa, to Egypt and back to contemporary time. On Sunday, January 8, the second program features Dr. John Henrik Clarke as he talks about the African influences that shaped and transformed Egypt into one of the greatest nations of antiquity. Dr. Clarke is a former professor of African history at Hunter College in New York. On Sunday, January 15, Dr. Charles Cooper, a widely recognized lecturer on Old Testament studies and ancient black biblical history, discusses the position of black people in the biblical world. The final program in the series, airing Sunday, January 29, features Dr. Ivan Van Sertima, a professor at Rutgers University, as he reviews the many linkages between Africa, Egypt and contemporary life.

OUTREACH airs Sunday at 5:30 on WTVI-42. Burrell Brooks is producer and Tyrone Steele is director.

Dr. John Henrik Clarke (L) talks with Ruth Sloan about the Egyptians and their world.

MAGICWORD

HOW TO PLAY: Read the list of words. Look at the puzzle. You'll find these words in all directions — horizontally, vertically, diagonally, backwards. Draw a circle around each letter of a word found in the puzzle, then strike it off the list. Circling it will show a letter has been used but will leave it visible should it also form part of another word. Find the big words first. When letters of all listed words are circled, you'll have the given number of letters left over. They'll spell out your MAGICWORD.
