McDonald's Announces Gospelfest

Raleigh - McDonald's invites Gospel choirs throughout the Carolinas to join in Carolina Gospelfest '88, a celebration of inspirational music. Participating choirs will be competing for $9,000 in prizes.

Sponsored by local McDonald's restaurants, this year's singing competition has an entirely new structure. Choirs will compete with other choirs of comparable size in one of three categories: choirs of 4-19 singing members, 20 or more singing members, or college choirs. Non-professional singing groups who do not presently have a recording contract are eligible to compete.

Preliminary events will be held at various sites throughout the Carolinas on Saturdays April 16, 23, and 30. Winners of each preliminary competition will advance to a semi-final round on Saturday, May 7. The semi-final winners will then compete in the final competition on Sunday, May 22, in the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium. This final event will feature special guest artist Shirley Caesar and the winner of Carolina Gospelfest '86 - The Family Fellowship Choir.
