

Gotta Dance!

By Laurene Rhynne
Dance Writer

Dance Central is pleased to announce its 5th anniversary CELEBRATION! Celebration is the theme of our Spring Concert featuring Swan Lake, Act II, Brahms' Waltzes, Celebration, and an as yet untitled modern work. We would like to invite everyone to our program, which is very special.

Swan Lake: Ballet's most famous and beloved story of an enchanted maiden and a handsome prince.

celebration: An original work, choreographed by Katharyn Horne, to an original score composed especially for Dance Central by Jane Wiley.

Brahms' Waltzes: Originally choreographed in 1960, this Charles Weidman piece is in loving memory of Doris Humphrey. It incorporates Doris' favorite and most beautiful movements with the music of Brahms.

A new modern work: So new, it doesn't even have a name yet, this piece is choreographed by Mary Ann Mee, set to a collage of contemporary Japanese music and the work of Debussy.

Performances are held at Pease Auditorium on the Central Piedmont Community College campus. The times and dates are: Friday, May 20, 8:15; Saturday, May 21, 8:15 and Sunday, May 22, 2:30. Admission is free.

FIRST AGAIN, BABY!

WILMA RUDOLPH, track legend and Olympic Gold Medalist, joins RONALD E. SMILEY of Anheuser-Busch at the Reggie McKenzie Foundation Salute to Excellence dinner in Detroit. Rudolph is the first woman to be honored by the Foundation.

The Journey

In the distance
Drums of warning
Echoing - Fear ---
A dark and fertile land
Villages
Blacks
Captured
A multitude of ships
Rides like cattle; Death's
Survivors, a
Foreign shore
Sold --- Highest bidder
Indoctrination
With the whip and
Holy Word
Human Bondage
All the misfortunes of an enslaved people
Legal Freedom - Arise
Disunited by folkways and suspicions
To ascertain a secure and climatic future
In the distance
Drums of warning
Echoing - Unite
Shed your Fears
