

Miss Zeta Amicae Pageant To Be Held

In 1940 graduate chapters of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority found the need to establish a support group. In April 1978 Zeta Amicae was organized here in Charlotte by the Delta Zeta Chapter.

Over the past ten years they have worked in areas of service such as, winterization of homes for the elderly, March of Dimes Healthy Baby Walk-A-Thon and Stock's Nest, and the Salvation Army's Dress the Dolls Program. Zeta Amicae has also given financial contributions to NAACP, Salvation Army, United Negro College Fund and Taps.

On Sunday, May 29, Zeta Amicae will award their first scholarship at the "Little Miss Zeta Amicae Pageant."

The participants have been exposed to various educational and social activities such as; developing study skills, good grooming, substance abuse, skating party, pizza party and other activities.

The contestants are Zondra Douglas, daughter of Ms. Velma Gibson; Ashley Holland daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Matthew Holland; Crystal Davis, daughter of Mrs. Sally Davis; Leah Webb, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Harry Webb; Kesha Givens, daughter of Ms. Pamela Coleman; Courtney Fulwood, daughter of Ms. Jeanette Fulwood; and Natasha Martin, daughter of Ms. Jacqueline Morrison.
