

Electrical Grill Convenience

The aroma of hamburgers and chicken sizzling on an outdoor grill permeates the air in your neighborhood. It smells so good you can taste it.

Unfortunately, handling messy charcoal and flammable liquids or trying to light a stubborn grill can dampen your enthusiasm for cooking out.

Maybe it's time you flip the switch on an electric grill. In just a few minutes, the grill is ready to use because of dual heating elements and variable temperature controls.

Just think, no more running out to the store at the last minute to buy lighter fluid or charcoal or refill a fuel cylinder. You'll be at home flipping up to sixteen hamburgers or with the optional rotisserie, grilling a roast or turkey. Cleanup is simple too. Just place the porcelain coated cooking grid in the dishwasher.

Cooking outdoors with an electric grill costs pennies a meal, and to top it off the air conditioner won't have to remove the moisture and heat generated when cooking inside. This will save you energy and money.

Here are some "sizzlin'" recipes to save you time and energy for the summer ahead:

ITALIAN BURGERS

- 1 1/2 pounds ground beef
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper (optional)
- 1 teaspoon monosodium glutamate
- 1 tablespoon dry spaghetti sauce mix
- Mozzarella cheese, grated

Lightly mix all ingredients except Mozzarella cheese and shape into 6 patties. Place on grill. Cook on medium heat 4 to 6 minutes per side. Sprinkle with grated Mozzarella cheese and serve on toasted Italian bread slices.
Serves 4 to 6.

TEXAS RED MARINADE

- 1 small yellow onion, halved, skin removed
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 tablespoon lime juice
- 2 large red bell peppers, about 1 pound
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 jalapeno peppers
- 2 cloves garlic, peeled

Place onion, halved-side down, whole bell peppers and jalapeno peppers on grill. With grill cover open, heat on high, turning peppers until vegetables are blackened; remove. Peel skins off blackened portion of onion. Combine onion, peppers and garlic in food processor or electric blender. Add oil, lime juice and salt. Blend until smooth.

Pour into a gallon-size storage bag. Add 4 servings meat, fish or poultry to be grilled or broiled. Seal plastic bag securely. Turn bag to evenly distribute marinade and coat food. Place bag in pan; refrigerate according to chart following. Lightly salt and pepper meat, fish or poultry before grilling or broiling.
Makes 1 cup marinade, enough for 4 servings.

MARINADE TIMING CHART

Chicken or Sirloin = 4 hours in refrigerator
Pork or Lamb chops = 2 to 3 hours in refrigerator
Fish steaks or fillets = 2 hours in refrigerator
Shellfish = 1 hour in refrigerator

ONION-POTATO BAKE

- 1/2 cup butter or margarine, softened
- 1 envelope onion soup mix
- 6 baking potatoes, scrubbed

Cut each potato in 4 length-wise slices. Blend butter with soup mix and spread on slices, then reassemble potato. Place on sheet of aluminum foil and wrap securely. Put on grill and cook on medium heat 35 to 40 minutes, or until done. Serve with additional butter.
Makes 6 servings.
