Lee, Pro-Line Sweepstakes Winner

New York, NY - It will be Black Family Reunion Time for Charlotte, North Carolina bank employees Terence A. Lee and 70 members of his family in New York City September 30 - October 2, as they gather and share his winning the grand prize in the 1988 4,100,000 Pro-Line hair products Black Family Reunion Sweepstakes.

Mr. Lee and 49 of his family members from North Carolina will be flown to New York via American Airlines on Friday, September 30, and stay at the Ross Hotel near La Guardia Airport, as they celebrate their reunion festivities.

After a series of local events, the family will be joined by other relatives from the New York area, including his grandmother, Mrs. Sindy Clark of Brooklyn, and sisters Mrs. Lola Cox, Mrs. Joyce Butler and Mrs. Bobbie Hinson, the latter an American Airlines stewardess for 15 years, to highlight their activities at a gala reunion picnic Saturday, October 1, on the patio of the black-owned Carmichael's Inn in East Elmhurst, Queens.

Also joining Mr. Lee and family members at the reunion, will be a host of local dignitaries as well as comer Cottrell, chief executive officer of the Dallas, Texas-based Pro-Line Corporation, and one of the top 40 black-owned businesses in the nation, and other officials of the hair products company and American Airlines.

Pro-Line launched the $100,000 Family Reunion Sweepstakes in 1987 with the promotional undertaking generating over 19,000 nationwide entries. The 1988 Sweepstakes has been an even bigger success, with approximately 31,000 entries, an increase of more than 50 percent over the first year.

Pro-Line, a Black Family owned and operated business, has always taken special pride in promoting such opportunities, which allow other black families to cohesively commemorate their heritage through celebrations of love and joy. This, being the ultimate source of strength, which has traditionally bound together the Black Family unit.

The first prize winner, Mrs. Doris Holloway Chapman of Jackson, Miss., will spend 7 days and 6 nights with her family in San Diego, California, plus receive $1,000 spending money. Second prize winner, Ms. Robin West from the Bronx, New York, spent a weekend for two in New Orleans' French Quarters, with $500 spending money.

Over 3,000 third prize, a Pro-Line "Travel 'N Style Kit" containing product samples, have previously been awarded to winners throughout the country.
