Horne Debuts LP For Fall

The legendary Lena Horne debuted her new album "The Men In My Life," on the Three Cherries Record Label this Month.

THE MEN IN MY LIFE has an electric grouping of musical talents, which include composers Harold Arden, Johnny Mandel, Jerome Kern and new material. Further delights are duos with Sammy Davis Jr. and Joe Williams.

LENA HORNE, has enjoyed an incredible career that has spanned over 50 years, starting with her debut at the Cotton Club, and culminating in her electrifying Broadway one-woman show LENA HORNE: THE LADY AND HER MUSIC. That show garnered her a 1981 Special Tony Award, as well as two 1982 Grammy Awards for Best Popular female vocalist and Best Original Cast Album. THE MEN IN MY LIFE is her first recording since the release of THE LADY AND HER MUSIC.

THREE CHERRIES RECORDS, INC., headed by Samuel Aizer and James Seehy, Sr. is a newly formed label that has put together a diversified roster of artists encompassing jazz hard rock and front line performers. Thrilled by Horne's decision to record for THREE CHERRIES, Aizer explained, "The reason LENA HORNE came to our label was because of the personal commitment THREE CHERRIES has to quality music and our recording artists." Executive Producer Sherman Sneed who produced Ms. Horne produced by Ettore Stratta and on Broadway.

Melba Moore Gives Us Sweet Obsession Debut LP

Superstar Melba Moore who has achieved fame in every aspect of entertainment and opened doors for artists such as Freddie Jackson, has proven again that she has a golden ear with a new group - SWEET OBSESSION.

Melba saw the talented sisters (Kenna, Kimmala, and Michelle Green) from Detroit while hosting the Ohio Valley Music Awards. After seeing their sizzling performance, Melba invited them to meet with the high power Hush Productions management firm in New York. Although the music awards was supposed to be the girls' last venture in the music business, they jumped at the chance to meet with the management firm that molded Melba Moore as well as Freddie Jackson's careers.

SWEET OBSESSION's first single "I'm Gonna Get Over You," from their self-titled debut album is rapidly rising up the music charts. Their impending success has garnered them a song in Tri-star picture's winter release "Iron Eagle II" starring Lou Gossett Jr., as well as joining Freddie Jackson's USA tour as the opening act.
