

WEDDINGS & ENGAGEMENTS

Wright And Alexander Unite

Becky Lorraine Wright and Stanley Craig Alexander were united in marriage on Saturday, February 25 at Second Calvary Baptist Church, Columbia, S.C.

The 4 p.m. ceremony was officiated by Dr. Latta R. Thomas.

Becky is the daughter of retired sergeant major Fred Wright and Hazel Wright of Columbia. Stanley is the son of Charlotte Alexander and James F. Alexander.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a long, regal white satin bridal gown. The beautifully fitted bodice tapered to a slimming basque waistline. The bodice was embellished with French imported re-embroidered alencon lace, encrusted with lavish patterns of hand sewn seed pearls and iridescents. A jewelled mandarin lace collar enhanced the plunging marquisette back which was edged with scalloped lace and enclosed with satin covered bridal buttons and loops.

The long fitted sleeves, tapering from puffs at the shoulders to satin wrist points, were accented with a row of bridal buttons and adorned with an insert of window pane alencon lace.

The slightly gathered full skirt held an attached cathedral length train.

The headpiece was made of Venice lace, detailed with a pearl and iridescent braid and a spirals of lillies and pearls.

The maid of honor was Annette Wright and matron of honor was Angela Vereen.

The bridesmaids were: Cheryl Alexander, Irby Groforth, Maxine Goodwin, Cheryl Littlejohn, Pamela Reid, Rosalind Reid, Donna Siler and Winifred R. Williams.

The flowergirls were Lauren Ashley Brown, Lateshea Smith and Tanleka Smith.

Douglas M. Taylor was the best man.

The ushers were: Willie Baines, Duncan Jackson, Kenneth Moore, Carlton O'Neil, Daryle Vereen, Ronald Ramsey, Corey Smith, Charles Williams and Fred Wright.

Master Ronald Buchanan was the ring bearer.

Music was provided by Dr. Ronald Hicolt and soloist Lisa Cunningham and Eddie Jackson.

The reception was held at Fort Bragg's NCO Club.

The couple will take a wedding trip to Jamaica for a week and they will reside in Charlotte.

Becky attended the University of South Carolina and she is employed by the N. C. Juvenile Services Division as a court counselor.

Stanley attended North Carolina Central University and is presently employed at the Mecklenburg County Department of Social Services as a case worker.
