Triple County Play Ends, 2nd Season Awaits

By BOB JOHNSON
Post Sports Writer

The 1989 Triple County Baseball season ended last weekend; and the Charlotte Bombers, with a 13-9 victory over the Clover Hornets and a 13-10 victory over the Charlotte Red Birds, captured the title.

The season was riddled with excitement and turmoil on and off the field. On the field, the regular season champions - Charlotte Bombers - won ten of their 24 victories coming from behind in the last four innings. They also won 9 straight games. The Charlotte Red Birds - a team to be reckoned with during the playoffs, beginning August 12 - saw a 10-game winning streak trashed by the Bombers last Sunday. The Red Birds also turned the only triple play of the season. Of the 135 games played this season, 49 were determined by one run. Off the field, the Hoskins Giants and the league's front office ended a season-long battle over four games taken from the Giants when the league reversed an earlier decision and gave the Giants four games it had taken from them in May, in a heated league meeting last Tuesday night. The reversed decision placed Hoskins alone in second place which improved their playoff seeding.

Next week's article will feature the playoff seedings, times and places.

New Garinger football coach Jimmy Teague (standing) meets with his team during the first week of high school football practice.
