

Fulton To Address Constitution

CHARLOTTE - Superior Court Judge Shirley Fulton will speak on "Women's Equality: What Has The Supreme Court Given Us to Celebrate?" at the Saturday, August 26, meeting of the Mecklenburg County Democratic Women's Club. The breakfast meeting will begin at 10:15 a.m. at Shoney's Restaurant, 440 South Independence Blvd. The public is invited.

Judge Fulton will discuss the future of women's rights in light of recent Supreme Court rulings.

August 26 is celebrated as Women's Equality Day to commemorate passage of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution giving women the right to vote. Although the amendment became the law of the land in 1920, the North Carolina General Assembly did not ratify the amendment until 1971.

Relic To Speak At Black Political Caucus

From Staff Reports
Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools Supt. Peter Relic will be the featured guest of the Black Political Caucus at 7:30 Sunday at First Baptist Church West. Relic will field education-related questions during the open session.

For more information, call Davis at 568-4981.

Walk For Political Freedom

The Charlotte-Mecklenburg branch of the NAACP will sponsor a Walk for Political Freedom Saturday in the Enderly Park neighborhood.

The march will begin at 8:30 a.m. at Mount Carmel Baptist Church on Tuckaseegee Road with participants going door-to-door to encourage prospective voters to register.

Registrars will be present to register new voters, change precinct registrations, and answer general questions about the voting process.

For more information, contact Alfred Alexander at 333-1167.

Health Fair Is Scheduled For Saturday

From Staff Reports
The Charlotte club of the National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women's Club will sponsor a health fair from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday at Parkwood Institutional CME Church on Parkwood Avenue.

Among the services to be made available are blood pressure, diabetes and cholesterol checks, as well as seminars on nutrition and sexually-transmitted diseases.

Back-to-school examinations will also be given to students.
