

WEDDINGS & ENGAGEMENTS

Bunn And Mallory Unite In Marriage

Cheryl Beauty Bunn and George Wayne Mallory were joined in holy matrimony on August 19, 1989. The 4 p.m. ceremony was held at United Emmanuel Holiness Church in Boston, Mass and was officiated by Rev. William Watson and assisted by Rev. Maggie L. Mallory.

Cheryl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bunn, Sr., is a 1988 graduate of Johnson C. Smith University where she majored in communication arts. The bride is employed with The Charlotte Post Newspaper as a graphic artist.

Wayne, the son of Mr. Vincent G. and Rev. Maggie L. Mallory, is a 1983 graduate of Johnson C. Smith University where he majored in communication arts. The groom is a shipping supervisor with Jefferson Pilot Data Services in Charlotte.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a white and lace taffeta dress with pearl accents. The neckline and sleeves were of lace and pearls. The gown was fitted to the knee where ruffles began and continued into a five-foot train.

The bodice was of drop pearls and lace overlay. Ruffles accented the shoulders with small cluster of pearls in center of the ruffle accents. The back consisted of open shape of a heart trimmed in lace. The lower back consisted of a bow which when connected with the train gave an illusion of flowing ruffles from the waist to the floor.

The head piece, which was designed by the bride, was a braided pearl band with a gathering of sheer white netting at the back of the head and a flowing white netting blush. The bouquet consisted of pearls, silk white and lavender roses with an ivy and lavender floral cascade.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Oleatha Thibodeaux, sister of the bride. She wore a lavender taffeta and lace tea length dress. Lace overlay dropped to the hips and accented with a bow. She carried a bouquet of white and lavender silk roses and purple carnations.

The bridesmaids included Ms. Cathy Adams, Mrs. Beverly Johnson, cousin of the groom, Ms. Nicole Kibbe, cousin of the bride, Ms. Dhetra Powell, Ms. Andrea Swain, and Ms. Alecia Wakefield. The flower girls were little Miss Brittany Borden, little Miss Brenda De Shields and little Miss Tanesha Broderick.

The bridesmaids wore taffeta short sleeve lavender tea length dresses with a fitted bodice that flared at the hip. The back was cut low and accented with a bow at the lower back. They each carried a silk bouquet of African violets. The flower girls wore short sleeve lavender taffeta gowns accented with lavender lace. Headpieces were made of a lavender lace and purple ribbon band with lavender rose buds.

The bride's mother wore a pink taffeta v-neckline dress with chiffon overlay. She had a matching jacket, satin purse and shoes. She wore a silk lavender and purple rose and carnation corsage accented with lavender and purple ribbon.

The bridegroom's mother wore a lavender chiffon dress with overlay. She had matching lace gloves and satin shoes. She wore a silk lavender and purple rose and carnation corsage accented with lavender and purple ribbon.

The ring bearer was Master John Borden, Jr. and the best man was Mr. Wesley Payne. The ushers were: Mr. Chris Adams, cousin of the groom, Mr. Lee Bunn, Mr. Sonny Bunn and Mr. Troy Bunn, brothers of the bride, Mr. Randall Fields, Mr. Willie Patton, Mr. Raymond Pinckney, Mr. Robert Poole, Mr. LeRoy Scott, Dr. Quentin Shaw and Mr. Robert F. Thibodeaux, Sr., brother-in-law of the bride. All of the ushers wore Lord West tuxedos with lavender cummerbunds and bow ties. The groom wore tails and a white pique vest and bow tie.

The music was provided by organist Mrs. Edna Sims. Soloists were Ms. Angela Bunn, niece of the bride, Mr. Steven Pam and Mrs. Bertha Johnson. Directors were Mrs. Mattie Hull, Mrs. Marion Turenue and Ms. Angela Bunn.

The reception was held in Whiton Hall in Dorchester, Mass. and was beautifully catered by Doyle & Sons Caterers of Quincy. The photographer was Mr. Calvin Ferguson of The Charlotte Post and Ferguson Photographics. The music was provided by Dion White & Company. The couple enjoyed a five day, four night honeymoon in Hamilton, Bermuda. The couple will reside in Charlotte.

We're Looking For Volunteers To Lie Around All Summer

It's our toughest time of year to collect blood. So tough, in fact, we need you to give two times this summer if you're able. But no matter how often you can do it, bring yourself, bring your family or bring a friend to donate blood. All you have to do is lie around.
