Salem Baptist Church Sponsors Annual Fall Revival

By GWENDOLYN DANIELS
Lifestyles Editor

Salem Baptist Church cordially invites you to their 1989 fall revival, where the Rev. Anthony L. Jinwright is pastor. Worship services will begin on Sunday, September 10th at 7 p.m. with the powerful and spirited Rev. Ervin Milsap, pastor of New Hope Baptist Church located here in Charlotte, N.C. along with his choirs and congregation.

Beginning on Monday through Friday, September 11-15, services will begin at 7:30 p.m. The guest evangelist will be the anointed Rev. James R. Woodson of St. Paul United Holiness Church, Greensboro, N.C.

Everyone is urged not to miss this opportunity to participate in these spirit filled services. Choirs will be singing each night from within and outside the city.

GREATER MOUNT SINAI

The Greater Mount Sinai Baptist Church will kick off its revival service September 10th by observing their Annual Men's Day. Dr. Moses Javis of the Dayspring Baptist Church of Jacksonville, Florida will speak at the morning worship service at 10:30 a.m. and also at the Sunday evening worship at 6 p.m.

The revival service will begin at 7 p.m. on Monday night, September 11th. Dr. Javis will be the evangelist for the week.

Dr. Javis is no stranger to the Carolinas. He was born in Columbia, S.C. and graduated from the C.A. Johnson High School in 1953. He attended Benedict College in Columbia, S.C. during his freshman year and transferred to Zion College in Chattanooga, Tenn. where he received his B.S. Degree. From there he entered the J. J. Stark School of Theology, Benedict College, Columbia, S.C. where he received his B.D. Degree in 1961. In 1971 he received an honorary D.D. Degree from the Birmingham Baptist Bible College in Birmingham, Alabama and the Honorary L.L.D. Degree from Selma University in Selma, Alabama.

Dr. Javis is married to the former Edna Shack of Birmingham, Alabama. They have two sons, Cedric Douglas and Julian Raynard and one daughter, Melody Sue.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH WEST

The First Baptist Church West cordially invites the public to attend their fall revival services beginning Sunday September 10th through Thursday, September 14th at 7:30 p.m. nightly.
