

Pitch It Right Here, Roger

Independence quarterback Roger Pettus (4) tosses the football to a teammate in last week's loss to Harding. The Patriots (1-1) will try to get back on the winning side tomorrow when they take on West Charlotte, who scored a last-minute, come-from-behind win over Garinger in the Lions home opener. It doesn't get any easier for the Wildcats, either, as they take on West Mecklenburg's Indians at home. Please see the schedule below for the remainder of local high school games.

Ashbrook at North Gaston
 Kings Mountain at Crest
 South Point at East Gaston
 West Mecklenburg at Garinger
 W Charlotte at Independence

Olympic at Myers Park
 North Mecklenburg at South Mecklenburg
 Harding at East Mecklenburg

Clinic Is Open For Athletes

The Sports Medicine Center of the Miller Orthopaedic Clinic will open Saturday morning starting August 26 and continuing through November 4 to treat high school football and other sports related injuries. There will be no out-of-pocket cost to the patient for the initial doctor's evaluation or X-rays. This is the 15th consecutive year that the Clinic is offering this service.

The Clinic is located at 1822 Brunswick Avenue. hours will be 10 - 11:30 a.m.; not appointment necessary. The Clinic requests that athletes bring their personal insurance information with them. Insurance assignment will be accepted as payment for the initial evaluation and X-rays for a new injury; normal fees would apply for any additional treatment or subsequent visits for the same injury.

Miller Orthopaedic Clinic physicians also treat the Charlotte Hornets, the Charlotte Knights, UNC Charlotte, Davidson college, and Wingate College athletes. For additional information, contact The Miller Orthopaedic Clinic Sports Medicine Center, 375-2383.
