

A Donation To Build The Future

gins and Carvin. It's a moving song, sung sweetly with unrestrained emotion. Good stuff. "Heaven Belongs To You" - This is my favorite song on the CD. Each brother takes turn with lead vocal, ad libbing when the other takes over. The song bobs along on a catchy refrain which hooks you. "He Said Go" - Ronald sings lead on the most spiritual song on the CD. Brother BeBe joins the group on background vocals, which are stunning. Carvin's distinctive falsetto soars over the rest. You couldn't end the CD in a better way.
