Willie Stratford Sr.

Annie Bell Price

Charlotte civic leader and retired postal service spokesman Willie Stratford Sr. has been named recipient of the 1993 Infinity Award by the Charlotte Public Relations Society. The Infinity Award recognizes individuals who have made a significant and continuing contribution to the public relations profession and demonstrated high standards of performance and ethics. Stratford retired in 1983 after a career in public information and retail sales with the U.S. Postal Service. He is a member of the Goodfellows Club, the American Red Cross, Fighting Back, Energy Committed to Offenders and the Mecklenburg Council of Boy Scouts of America. In a tribute to his community participation, The Willie J. Stratford Bridge at I-85 and Beatties Ford Road is named for him.

•The family of Annie Bell "Little

Mama" Price celebrated her 100th birthday at FDY.

A resident of Grier Heights community, Price is a member of Weeping Willow A.M.E. Zion Church. She has 14 children. Friends and family were at her birthday celebration. Her 100th birthday was Sept. 19.
