People who make things happen.

"Restoring traditional family values is one of our main objectives for the 90s."

Dorothy I. Height
President
National Council of Negro Women

Dorothy Height is a symbol of commitment. She has led the first national coalition of Black women's organizations for over 30 years. With innovative programs such as the annual Black Family Reunion Celebrations, Height and the NCNW are keeping alive the history, tradition and culture of the Black family.

That's why Anheuser-Busch supports the National Council of Negro Women, just as we support other educational and cultural programs, community projects and the development of minority businesses.

At Anheuser-Busch we're committed to a better quality of life. For everyone.
