

Bego's book teaches self-help

does have an interesting work that can help you better focus your energies. Bego's book, which is self-published, is available at numerous bookstores in the Charlotte area including The Baptist Bookstore on South Boulevard, Byrums, on the Plaza, Logo's on Park Road,

The Lamb in Carolina Place and The Living Word on Pecan Ave.
"Reaching Your Highest Potential" is well worth the trip.

Sounds: Black/Note debuts

puts you in the smokey jazz club mood. "Double Indemnity" bops along on James Mahone's fluid alto saxophone.
There are musical references to many great artists - Mingus, Coleman and Gordon. But the most obvious is John Coltrane, who inspired "Get Your Trane On."
This is a wonderful recording that should satisfy purists and even those who may occasionally listen to Kenny G, but won't admit it.

"To win in the industrial world, you need customers who believe in you."

"I had the education. I had the determination. I had the vision. But just as I needed the support of my teammates to win in basketball, I needed the support of customers who believed in me to win in the industrial world as a manufacturer of automotive parts.

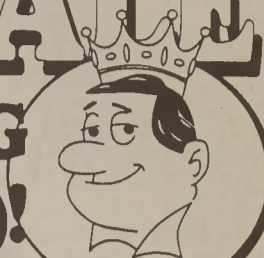

General Motors demonstrated their faith in me early on. Having GM as a major customer not only provided important cash flow, but it did something else; it gave me the credibility to attract other customers.
With customers like GM, there is life after basketball."
