REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL

The County of Mecklenburg, North Carolina is seeking a qualified company or individual to provide full-service equestrian-related instruction, training, boarding and multi-disciplined, competitive shows and exhibitions. The selected individual or group of individuals will be contracted to provide this extensive level of recreational, educational and competitive horse-related activities for the general public of Mecklenburg County. The County desires a long-term, contractual agreement that will make available private sector operation (s) at the Equestrian Center and its ancillary facilities at Latta Plantation Park.

Latta Plantation Park is a 1000+ acre Nature Preserve located off Beatties Ford Road at 5225 Sample Road approximately ten (10) miles North of Charlotte. The Park is majestically placed on Mountain Island Lake. It is supported by other major park attractions such as the Carolina Raptor Center, the Historic James Latta Homeplace, ten (10) miles of horse trails and a picnic/play meadow.

Interested parties should make arrangements to attend the Proposer's Conference and Site Inspection at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, September 4, 1996 at the Park Interpretive Center. Request for Proposal documents will be available at the Proposer's Conference or may be obtained by telephone request by calling the below listed number.

Questions concerning this project should be directed to:

Elaine Maske, Accounting Technician
Mecklenburg County Park & Recreation Dept.
