Church World Service is a cooperative ministry of 36 Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox denominations. It provides self-help and development, disaster relief, and refugee assistance.

CWS, which organizes CROP Walks to fight hunger in the U.S. and worldwide, has benefited from the participation of North Carolinians. Of 2,000 walks held annually, the biggest is Charlotte, followed by Greensboro and Durham.

"There's an amazing amount of enthusiasm and compassion here to help people around the world," McCoy said. For more information on CWS/CROP's Haitian response, call (888) 297-2767.

Graham to run for N.C. Senate

African American voting strength. Both are majority black. District 40 was seen by some observers as an opportunity for former Sen. Fountain Odom to return to office. He lost to his seat to Republican Robert Pittenger in 2002.

Graham, 41, said his campaign would focus on issues, not whether he should be in the race.

"As I've done in all my campaigns, I don't focus on the opponent," Graham said. "I just run my race."

 Thurs-Sat 8pm
 Sun 2:30pm

Written by Lorraine Hansberry
 Directed by Marilyn Carter

Set in Chicago's South Side during the 1950s, and winner of the New York Drama Critics Circle Award, A Raisin In The Sun is a vivid portrayal of an African-American family. The dreams and conflicts of three generations of the Younger family are guaranteed to grip audiences. This comedy/drama portrays sacrifice, trust, love and heartbreak; and a heroic struggle to hold a family together. A modern classic.
