before we get to our ultimate goal."

Beazer Homes plans to build townhouses around the restaurant. Beazer owns the land and informed Wilson and McCarver that the company plans to develop the 15 acres of land into residential properties.

The Coffee Cup had a Dec. 15 deadline to vacate the property, but with landmark designation, it has a 180-day reprieve.

reprieve.

Wilson said he and McCarver have been in talks with Beazer and some of the options that they've come up with include moving the building to another location or integrating the restaurant into Beazer's plans.

"We want this to be a winwin situation. We're not try-

Bradley Continued from page 1A

National Association of Black Journalists President Bryan Monroe said he was shocked by Bradley's death. "It was a surprise when I heard about his passing this morning," Monroe said. Thad actually talked to Ed four or five months ago. I had a meeting to go to in New York, and we were going to hook up and we were going to hook up after my meeting I had over at CBS."
