Notice. W. M. L. S. TOWNSHEND having purchased the interest of J. R. Reston, in the firm of Reston & Townshend; the business will now be conducted under the title of W. M. L. S. TOWNSHEND. There will be no winding up of accounts, but simply a change in the firm. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended to the old, a continuance of the same is most respectfully solicited to the new establishment. J. R. RESTON, W. M. L. S. TOWNSHEND. Oct. 26.

A Card. J. R. RESTON will still be found at the stand of W. M. L. S. Townshend, where he solicits the patronage heretofore extended to the firm of R. & T. Oct. 26. J. R. R.

Notice. W. L. S. TOWNSHEND has just received and offers for sale, the most splendid lot of Preserves ever imported: consisting of Peaches, Green Gages, Prunes, Raspberry, Black berry, Strawberry, Pine Apples, and Limes. Also, the above Fresh Fruits hermetically sealed. Fine Apples and Peaches in Brandy, English and American Sauces and Catsup and Extracts Flavoring waters. Colgate, Excelsior and fancy Soap; a lot of Barbers Soap, a new article; Arrow Root, Hecker's Farona, Corn Starch, Pot Ash, Salaratus, Brandies, Wines, Whiskey, Apple Brandy, and fancy Liqours, Champagne and Longworth's sparkling Catawba, Sperm Oil, Sperm Candles, Lincsed Oil; an assortment of house keeping articles, Buckets, Pails, Baskets, &c. A new article called "Old Tom" Gin, much ahead of Schnapps or any Gin ever imported.

To the Public. THE undersigned propose re-publishing from the London Edition, 1744, LAWSON'S HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA, "containing the exact description and natural history of that country, together with the present state thereof, and a journal of a thousand miles travelled through several nations of Indians, giving a particular account of their manners, customs, &c., by JOHN LAWSON, Gent., Surveyor General of North Carolina." The above is a rare work (there being but two copies known to the undersigned in the State) and should be in the hands of every North Carolinian. The author in a quaint, and most graphic style, narrates the manners and customs of the inhabitants at the period of which he treats—interspersing his narrative with many curious and amusing habits of Indian life, and portraying in lively colors with the great natural advantages of the then infant province of North Carolina. The above work will be sold at $1 per copy. Those wishing to subscribe for it will please send in their names as early as possible, as but a limited number of copies will be published. Address O. H. PERRY & CO., Raleigh, Nov. 14, 1854.

THE PRIDE OF LIFE; A NOVEL,—by Lady Scott, author of "The Heppecroft Husband." This work is superior to the former Novel by this Lady, which had so extensive a sale in this country. For sublimity of sentiment, chastity of tone, lively wit, deep pathos, and extensive knowledge of the secret springs of the human heart, "The Pride of Life" has no superior in the entire range of modern book-publishing. Those who have read "The Heppecroft Husband" will need no further incentive to induce them to purchase "The Pride of Life." For sale at (Nov 16) S. W. WHITAKER'S.

ZERMAN'S ANTI-SCORBUTIC TOOTHWASH. TO THE LADIES. NOTHING adds more to beauty than clean, white teeth and gums of healthy color. The most beautiful face and vermilion lips become repulsive, if the latter, when they open, exhibit the horrible spectacle of neglected teeth. All who wish clean, white teeth, healthy gums, and a sweet breath, should give ZERMAN'S TOOTH WASH a trial. For sale by C. & D. DEPRE, Agents. Sept. 30. 178
