To the Public. THE undersigned propose re-publishing from the London Edition, 1744, LAWSON'S HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA, containing the exact description and natural history of that country, together with the present state thereof; and a journal of the numerous travels through several nations of Indians, giving a particular account of their manners, customs, &c., by Jons Lawson, Gent., Surveyor General of North Carolina. The above is a rare work (there being but two copies known to the undersigned in the State) and should be in the hands of every North Carolinian. The author is a quaint, and most graphic style, narrates the manners and customs of the inhabitants at the period of which he treats—interspersing his narrative with many curious and amusing habits of Indian life, and portraying in lively colors with the great natural advantages of the then infant province of North Carolina. The above work will be sold at $1 per copy. Those wishing to subscribe for it will please send in their names as early as possible, as but a limited number of copies will be published. O. H. PERRY & CO. Raleigh, Nov. 14, 1854. 219

THE PRIDE OF LIFE; A NOVEL,—by Lady Scott, author of "The Heeked Husband." This work is superior to the former Novel by this Lady, which had so extensive a sale in this country. For sublimity of sentiment, chastness of tone, lively wit, deep pathos, and extensive knowledge of the secret springs of the human heart, "The Pride of Life" has no superior in the entire range of modern book-publishing. Those who have read "The Heeked Husband" will need no further incentive to induce them to purchase "The Pride of Life." For sale at (Nov 16) S. W. WHITAKER'S.

CLOTHS, Cassimeres and Vestings—Blue, Black, Brown, Amble, and Green Cloths, from the
