OL. III .-- NO. 271.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 21, 1857.

Bronchitis, Laryngites and other Diseases of the Chest and Throat, successfully treated by the Inhalation of Medicated Vapors and Powders, by Absorption and continual treatment, as practiced at the "Stuyvesant Mediater," New York City. Diseases of the Heart Liver, Female Complaints, Dyspepsia, Venereal Affections, and Chronic Diseases generally, will receive the attention of the Physicians, to whom such may have been specially entrusted. Fashion.

The unprecedented success which has attended this method of treating diseases of the Lungs and Throat, has induced us to depart from our usual course, and avail ourselves of the Press, in order to bring it to the knowledge of such as may be laboring under, or predisposed to such affections.

The dawn of a brighter day has at length arrived for the Consumptive. The doctrine of the incurability of Consumption has at length passed away. We have indubitable proofs in our possession, that Consumption in all its stages can be cured; in the first, by tubercular absorption; in thesecond, by the transformation of tubercule into chalky and calcareous concretions; in the profit of $1,000 a year; but an imperfect one is a cause third by cicatrice or scars. Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will his cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it but that I sold another: after a trial it always speaks for itself There are two things about this herb that appears to me sur prising; first that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known, until I discovered it in 1846-second, that it hould cure all kinds of humor. In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great opularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 855, 1 peddled it, and sold about six bottles per daya April 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day

Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in usiness twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicine was ever like it. There a universal praise of it from all quarters. In my own practice I always kept it strictly for hunors - but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found an that I never suspected. . Several cases of epileptic fits-a disease which was iways considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. U, what a mercy if it will prove effectual in all ases of that awini maracy - there are but lew who have seen more of it than I have. I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged people cured by it.
