Platform of the Republican Party.
The following is the platform of the Republican party in North Carolina, adopted in Convention at Raleigh, April 17, 1872:

The Republicans of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, do hereby re-affirm, and events have proved that their practical enforcement is essential to the welfare of the country, and to the maintenance of the rights, interests and liberties of the people.

1. That the Republican party of North Carolina favors as rapid a diminution and as early an extinction of all internal revenue taxation as the exigencies of the government will permit, for the reason that the details of the collection are necessarily oppressive, and in many respects oppressive to the people.

2. That all internal revenue taxes on the distillation of fruit ought to be abolished.
3. That the Republican party of North Carolina recommend to the Congress of the United States the passage of a general amnesty bill, and the adoption of all necessary measures for the enforcement and protection of the civil and political rights of all classes of American citizens.

4. That in a free and representative government, we recognize the paramount obligation to provide efficiently for the general education of the people, and we respectfully recommend and ask of the national government, such aid, by the provision of a public fund, or the donation of public lands to the purposes of establishing schools in the several States; as will secure to the masses of the people of all classes the benefits of a liberal education.

5. That we fully endorse the acts of Congress, passed to secure equal rights and protection to the citizens of the United States in the several States; and we respectfully recommend a continuance of the present laws, and the adoption of such further legislation as will more certainly secure to the citizens full and practical enjoyment of all their rights, privileges and liberties.

6. That in the opinion of this Convention, the Democratic majority of the last Legislature, by consolidating into one act its numerous propositions to amend the State Constitution, endeavored to force upon the people a false issue, and to coerce them into the adoption of obnoxious amendments, and inasmuch as all these propositions must be submitted to the next Legislature for ratification before the same can be referred to the people, therefore,
Resolved, 1. That the amendments proposed as a whole do not meet the approval of the Republican party, because their adoption would subvert essential principles of the existing Constitution.
2. That Republicans cannot endorse a portion of said amendments, and the next General Assembly may adopt such of them as shall seem best for the general welfare.

3. That we cordially endorse the administration of Gov. Caldwell, and recognize the fact that our people may rely upon his firmness in upholding their interests and defending their rights; and we heartily thank him for resisting the revolutionary purposes of those who designed to deprive the citizens of the protection afforded by the State Constitution.
4. That, forgetful of personal preferences, we pledge ourselves to support earnestly, and without reserve, the candidates presented by this Convention, believing that in unity alone is strength, and that principles are more important than men to the Republicans of North Carolina.

The following is the plan of organization, which was adopted:
Resolved, That hereafter the organization of the Republican party of North Carolina shall be as follows:
1. A State Executive Committee, of eleven members, to be appointed by the President of the Convention, who shall be ex officio one of the members of such committee.

2. A Congressional District Committee for each district, to be composed of one member from each county, to be appointed by the Congressional District Convention.
3. A County Executive Committee, to be composed of one member from each township, to be appointed by the County Convention.
4. A committee of five for each township, to be appointed by the people.

Resolved, That the present organization shall continue to exist until the new one shall be effected.
Resolved, That the representation in the county conventions shall be in accordance with the plan or organization of the party heretofore adopted.
The State Executive Committee is as follows:
I. E. West, of Craven.
T. B. Keogh, of Guilford.
N. W. Lillington, of Davie.
S. F. Phillips, Wake, ex officio.
R. W. Logan, of Rutherford.
S. T. Carrow, of Beaufort.
J. W. Hood, of Mecklenburg.
J. H. Harris, of Wake.
R. B. Ellis, of Wake.
G. L. Mabson, of New Hanover.
J. H. Williamson, of Franklin.

RALEIGH, Feb. 12, 1874.
The Republican members of the Legislature, in joint caucus assembled, representing as they believe the unanimous feeling of the Republicans of North Carolina do hereby perform to obtain from this General Assembly, controlled by a large Democratic majority, and in which we have failed, but we shall never cease our efforts to obtain the same at the hands of the government of North Carolina, and we confidently rely upon the people to sustain us.

2. That it is to the best interest of the people of North Carolina, that her great works of internal improvement shall be pushed vigorously to completion, and to that end every available resource shall be applied.
3. That the truest economy dictates that the vast mineral and agricultural wealth of our trans-mountain counties should be unlocked and poured into the markets of the world, by the speedy construction of both branches of the Western North Carolina Railroad, both to Ducktown and Paint Rock, and the Republicans east of the mountains pledge themselves to co-operate with the people of the West in any and all plans which will accomplish this end.

The Honor of the Era and its Backers! Private Correspondence Stolen and Published!! An Outrage no Honorable Man can or will Endorse!!
To the Republican Party and the Public:
For the last sixty days the Raleigh "Era," alias "The Tod Caldwell," or the "Uriah Heep," has endeavored by every means in its power to cast all the odium and abuse that its corps of editors could manufacture to blacken my name as a man and as a Republican.

Yesterday being in feeble health, and sorely by these uncalled for attacks, I wrote a private note to Mr. J. C. E. Harris, enclosing one from Mr. C. D. Upchurch. These notes were left by Mr. Harris, accidentally, in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court, from which place they were taken by Albert Magnin, as I am informed, and by him shown to some of the men holding high positions in the State, who advised their publication. God help the honor of the Old North State, if men holding the first positions in the gift of the people will stoop to the infamy of advising the publication of stolen private correspondence, under the hope that such publication might serve their nefarious schemes! But they are mistaken! Such acts are bound to bury in oblivion every one that counseled or endorsed so mean an act!

In regard to my note, those who know me, know I sometimes hastily make use of expressions that I have no idea of carrying into execution. Being sick, and seeing the Era of Monday evening, with an article endorsing the nominees of the Bolters' Convention for Superior Court Clerk, and that, too, after the State Executive Committee had decided as to the legality of the Convention of the 15th of May, I felt as I now feel, that the Era and its backers were determined to break up the party in the county—that was their object, nothing more nor less. In the heat of the moment, and believing no compromise could be made with them to save the party, and that, too, after declaration, publicly made by myself, that I would not be a candidate for Sheriff unless my financial difficulties were arranged, and so pledging myself to the Executive Committee of the State, and seeing the Era after all this, still backing up a bolters' ticket, I wrote a private note, and that note after having been procured in the manner it was, is published by and under the advice of such men as I have alluded to.

As to the Raleigh REPUBLICAN, as has been repeatedly charged by the Era, being my paper, or my especial defender, I have only this to say: the paper will not, cannot espouse my personal fights, nor defend me further than my course as a Republican is just and proper—and this defense would be the defense as well as of the Republican party. Not a dollar of my money is invested in the paper; two-thirds of the money used to carry on the paper is from gentlemen not in political life, but are strong friends of my side of the controversy, who seeing the extraordinary course of the Era, and its determination to crush me, without a hearing through its columns, and with me the many friends who have in former days, and do now stand by, and endorse me as a Republican, offered me the means to start the paper on a substantial basis; and I could of course stop the paper if circumstances warranted.

I am ready, as I always have been to do anything for the success of the party; but the Republicans of the State know this fight is not against Tim Lee personally—he is but the figure-head through which to strike other men and measures, and to carry out the vile schemes of the Star Chamber combination in Raleigh.

As to my remarks about splitting the party into a hundred pieces, I believe the course of the Era and its backers would justify me in that. But such is not my intention; and my future action in the county will prove it. If the party is to be broken up, the Era and its corps of editors (State and Federal officeholders) will have the responsibility to bear for such a disaster.

In conclusion, I call upon an impartial public to look upon the position that these men have assumed by publishing a stolen private correspondence.
