SALISBURY'S TARVIA

PLEASE GREENSBORO PEOPLE

Will Probably Adopt the System in the Future in Building Streets.

The Greensboro officials who visited Salisbury Friday and inspected the stretches of tarvia roads in the city were much pleased with their observations...

As a result of the commissioners of Greensboro having gone to Salisbury Friday to investigate the merits of the 'Tar-via' road being laid there...

The United States Government is building pavements of the tar into the Federal cemetery at Salisbury...

The rock is first laid and a galton and a half of the tar poured over each square yard...

There is one stretch of road in Salisbury built of this tar in the manner described which has withstood severe use for four years and is still perfectly intact...

Commissioner E. A. Brown was also asked about the road and spoke highly in favor of it.

SHORT ON GAS

Seriously Hindering Work in This Shop is the Result.

The Post uses gas to melt the lead for its linotype machine, and when the gas quits coming the machine has to stop...

We are still short on gas but hope to get out in some sort of shape. The gas company reports that it is making repairs and will give us gas regularly as soon as possible...

Injured by Automobile.

Walter Little was severely injured near Spencer Saturday afternoon by being run over by an automobile. He had stepped off a street car and not seeing the auto...

Accepts Position in Danville.

HORSES SHIPPED.

Racers for the Fourth to Arrive This Afternoon.

Mr. R. L. Avery, chairman of the racing committee for the 4th of July, announces that horses for the races will arrive this afternoon. He received a message by wire this morning from Greensboro stating that horses had been shipped...

Mr. Avery requests the Post to say that the horses may be seen at Fair Park tomorrow.

MEETING BEGAN.

Mr. Abernethy Arrived and Held Services Last Night.

Rev. J. E. Abernethy arrived yesterday afternoon from Winston and began a series of meetings at the First Methodist church last night. The lights went out on Mr. Abernethy, on account of the gas plant being out of repair...

The subject for tonight is 'The Art of Soul Winning. Everybody is invited to the meeting.'

BATTY-NEWSOM

Marriage Sunday Morning at Presbyterian Manse.

Prof. O. L. Batty and Miss Clara Newsom were married at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at the Presbyterian manse. Dr. Byron Clark officiating. Only a few friends witnessed the ceremony...

Prof. Batty was principal of the Southern Commercial School of this city for about eight months. Miss Newsom became a student during last fall, an attachment followed, which grew into love and culminated in their marriage Sunday.

The Post extends congratulations to the happy couple of Rowan county.

One lot, together situated thereon, between a stake on the west church street, Daisy M. Garner, 80 feet from the line of Church and Conference in a westerly direction.

MR. DORSETT MARRIED

WEDDED NEAR LOUISBURG.

Ceremony Performed at 10-30 this Morning--To Arrive Home Tonight.

The many friends of Mr. J. K. Dorsett, of Spencer, will be interested to learn of his wedding at Lenoir, N. C., this morning. Through the kindness of Mr. A. W. Hicks, editor of The Spencer Crescent, The Post is privileged to copy the following special to the Crescent:

Lenoir, N. C., June 27. "Editor Crescent, Spencer:

"At the beautiful country home of Mrs. E. A. Kemp about one and a half miles south of Lenoir, in the presence of only a few intimate friends, Miss Florence Terrell and Mr. J. K. Dorsett were happily united in the holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. L. W. Swope, pastor of the Baptist church, at half past ten o'clock this morning. Miss Terrell is one of the most prominent families of Franklin county."

The bride is well known in Spencer having taught school there in the Spencer graded school during the past two years. She is a highly accomplished young lady, is admired by all who know her.

The groom is cashier of the Bank of Spencer, treasurer of the city of Spencer and number of his friends with his acquaintances. He is a general favorite at Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsett are expected to arrive in Spencer tonight, and will be greeted by their numerous friends. They will board for the present at the Thornton house.

The Post extends congratulations to the couple.

First Cotton Bloom

Mr. J. M. Morgan, a good farmer of Morgan township, was in the city this morning and reports cotton blooms. He found the first blooms Sunday. Mr. Morgan has ten acres between knee and waist high, and says he has never had finer cotton at this season. His bottom land has been wet most of the spring and he worked his cotton fast and often, and as a result his cotton crop is excellent.

Mr. Charley Jacobs, of Franklin township, is the second to announce cotton blooms. He had the first Friday, had them plentiful this morning.

Mr. A. Seel, who has been in South Carolina for several weeks has returned to the city.

lightful climate with friends and relatives.

LEAVE FOR COLUMBIA.

Salisbury and Spencer Firemen to Take Part in Races.

Firemen from both the Salisbury and Spencer companies left this afternoon on No. 7 for Columbia, S. C., where they will take part in the interstate reel races. The interstate contest will take place Thursday afternoon, and a good report is expected from the boys.

PUTTING UP NEW PRESS.

May be Compelled to Give a Half Paper Several Days.

Mr. F. G. Cook, of Atlanta, Ga., arrived this morning and went to work getting ready to put up the Post's new press. He states that it will take him several days to construct the machine and get it in good running order. In the meantime the old press will have to be removed which will badly cripple the office in getting out the paper. It is probable we will only get out a half paper during the several days in which case the management will ask the indulgence of its patrons.

SALVATION ARMY.

To Open a Post in Salisbury, Capt. Wales Here Yesterday.

Capt. J. A. Wales, in charge of the Salvation Army in Charlotte, was in Salisbury yesterday looking over the city with a view to opening up a post of the Salvation Army in this city.

The captain is highly recommended by the mayor of other cities where he has been stationed. He is a live member of the Masonic and Odd Fellows fraternities, and we extend him a welcome to the city.

The Salvation Army is a great medium for good among those whom no other organization has yet successfully reached, and now while the opportunity is at hand, citizens should extend them a hearty welcome.

SALISBURY LIBRARY.

Those Who Have Subscribed to Fund Asked to Hand it in.

All who have subscribed or who wish to add to the Library Fund are asked to give their donations to Miss Elizabeth Hedrick, 220 West Innis street. If checks are sent, make them payable to order of 'Salisbury Library Association.'

WITNESS AGAIN TO-DAY

MAKING A FINAL EFFORT.

To Save Evelyn Arthur See From a Felon's Chair.

Chicago, June 27.—Mona Rees, high priest of the Cult Absolute Life, resumed the witness stand today, in a final effort to save Evelyn See from a felon's chair. The girl it was announced, would make any sacrifice to save her "God man" as See is called. She was unable to stand the examination and became confused.

RARE MUSICAL TREAT.

AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Sacred Concert a Splendid Success-- Best Voices in the City Take Part.

The sacred concert given Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist church was a rare treat in a musical way. The very best voices in the city, voices, from the different choirs, combined, under the able direction of Miss Goodykoontz, Mr. N. V. Taylor, and Miss Crawford, as organist, rendered most beautifully a program that in its entirety, was as one harmonious whole. Gounod's 'Gallis,' was the first piece, and was highly dramatic in all parts. In this, Mrs. F. F. Smith and Mrs. Carl Rabe were delightful soloists.

Soft and Sweet was the 'Seraph's Strain,' an organ solo, by Miss Crawford.

As Miss Emma Brown in her rich contralto sang 'Crossing the Bar,' one could but think of those who had so recently heard the 'one clear call.'

In Mr. Taylor's interpretation of Handel's 'Largo,' the tones went outward, upward--till they vanished in the air.

The program closed with Mendelssohn's 'Hear My Prayer.' The solo parts in this were taken by Mrs. F. F. Smith and her grandly beautiful voice 'fell like a benediction, that follows after the prayer.'

Salisbury should be proud of such accomplished and capable musicians.

Mr. Johnston Better Today.

Word comes from the Whitehead-Stokes sanatorium that Mr. Samuel R. Johnston is much better today. This will be good news to his many friends. If no complications set in he will soon recover.

Lawn Party Tonight.

The Philathea Society of Holmes Memorial church will serve ice cream on the court house lawn from 7:30 to 10 o'clock tonight. The proceeds are to be used towards purchasing a carpet for the church. The public is invited.
