

NOSTRILS AND HEAD STOPPED UP FROM COLD? TRY MY CATARRH BALM

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely; Dull Headache Goes; Nasty Catarrhal Discharge Stops.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopp'd up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh disappears. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

"MUTT & JEFF IN PANAMA."

"The real hit of the show world," is a very broad assertion. If it were made by Gus Hill, the sole owner and manager of "Mutt & Jeff," it would undoubtedly be set down as due to an exaggerated egotism, but coming from the critic of one of the most important and largest circulated newspapers in the Eastern country, it must necessarily have weight with the theatregoing public. The expression is an honest criticism that has been used by the critics of at least ten thousand daily and Sunday newspapers throughout the United States and Canada, in the past two years, which denotes unmistakably the fact that an equal number of trained writers, whose business is to see, compare and criticize plays for the benefit of newspaper readers, honestly believe that Bud Fisher's now nationally famous cartoon comedy, as presented in an elaborate scenic production by Mr. Gus Hill, is the one and only real musical comedy hit of the show world. Public interest in Fisher's daily cartoons has never flagged during the three years it has been running in more than a thousand of the most prominent publications in the country. His two clever character conceits, while representing nothing more than the dash of a pen in the hands of a clever artist with a master brain, have attracted the attention and held the interest of the best men, women and children of America and Europe, therefore it is not to be wondered at that the public never tired of seeing "Mutt & Jeff" in real life. "Mutt & Jeff in Panama" is the title of the new offering which Gus Hill has prepared at the cost of a small fortune for new scenery, costumes, story, music and everything that goes to make the most elaborately magnificent musical comedy production the stage has ever held. It all comes to the Grubb Theatre on Wednesday, October 8th. Don't miss it is good advice. This is the original New York company and not the one playing the small downs in this vicinity.

ESCAPED CONVICT CAUGHT.

Policeman Thompson Nabs Richmond County Negro and Gets Reward.

Policeman Arthur Thompson nabbed an escaped negro convict this week and the criminal has already been returned to the Richmond county chain gang from which he escaped. The man's name is Steve Propts and he was sent up for two years for resisting an officer while being arrested for some trivial offense, escaping after he had served only two days of a two year term. Sheriff H. D. Baldwin, of Rockingham, came up for him and he is now on the gang again. Policeman Thompson had a description of the negro and located him in "Monkey Bottom," a tough negro settlement here, and made the arrest. The negro, after the sheriff came for him, told of how he managed to escape. He said that while working the roads he found an o pocket knife and this he used as a saw to liberate himself. The Salisbury officer reaped a nice reward for his catch; the sheriff of Richmond county being only too glad to pay it to get his man back.

SUFFERED TWENTY-ONE YEARS—FINALLY FOUND RELIEF.

Having suffered for twenty-one years with a pain in my side, I finally have found relief in Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. The physicians called it "Mother's Pain," and injections of morphine were my only relief for short periods of time. I became so sick that I had to undergo a surgical operation in New Orleans, which benefited me for two years. When the same pain came back one day I was so sick that I gave up hopes of living. A friend advised me to try your Swamp-Root and I at once commenced using it. The first bottle did me so much good that I purchased two more bottles. I am now on my second bottle and am feeling like a new woman. I passed a gravel stone as large as a big red beet and several small ones. I have not had the least feeling of pain since taking your Swamp-Root and I feel it my duty to recommend this great medicine to all suffering humanity. Gratefully yours,

Some Women Lift a Ton of Water a Day. In the current issue of Farm and Fireside, it is reported that the President of the Mississippi Normal College is authority for the statement that the average woman, doing her own work in a house without a modern water supply, lifts a ton of water every day. This is the way he figures it out:

"A bucket of water weighs twenty pounds. It is lifted from the well, carried to the kitchen, poured out there for various uses and emptied out of doors. He counts the number of times it is lifted on the average at six times. Three meals a day call for ten bucketsful, which lifted six times amount to 1,200 pounds of lifting. Add the water for washing, mopping, bathing and drinking, and the ton is easily accounted for.

THE CIRCUS MONDAY.

Downie and Wheeler Aggregation Comes to This City Highly Praised by the Press.

Of the Downie & Wheeler circus, which will exhibit here next Monday, October 6th, the Lewes, Delaware, Pilot of September 19th says:

Downie & Wheeler's World Best Shows Combined pitched their tents here last Friday and during the day gave two very creditable performances to good sized audiences. At the close of each performance the universal opinion seemed to be that they well merited the patronage given, and everyone appeared to be pleased to the utmost. This is the second trip the aggregation has made into lower Delaware, and this season its growth was certainly noticeable. There is no doubt that the mere announcement of its arrival in any of the larger towns of lower Delaware henceforth will suffice to guarantee a full-house. The public has been "flimflammed" so often by the traveling circuses that it is a pleasure to make special mention of a really first-class article when it does come. This is the kind the Downie & Wheeler Shows are this season, and will continue to be so long as they are in the business, for when they undertake anything they believe in doing it in the proper way. The show was clean, wholesome, and full of splendid features, surpassing anything of the kind that has been seen in this section for several seasons. The only criticism that we heard at all was there was so much going all the time that one got tired of trying to see everything which was presented in the big arena. Every act was a feature in itself, the music by the bands was excellent, the clown antics were among the cleverest ever witnessed, being entirely new. The bareback riding by the Hollis' was as good as ever seen here. The wire-walking by the Six Ortons was certainly a fine treat and received hearty applause, the tumbling acts, trapeze performers, the rube work of the Bowers before the show and the hundred and one other acts that go to make up the big show were great and then some. A striking feature of the show is the courteous manner in which the management looks after the comfort and welfare of their friends and patrons. Past-masters of detail, they never overlook the slightest matter which may have any bearing on the success of the acts they present. "Order" is their watchword; "excellence" their keynote; while their fulfillment of their promises to the public is almost a religious with them. The names Downie & Wheeler are synonymous with "Best" and "Greatest," and the shows no doubt will continue to be of par-excellence. It seems that the shows cannot help but receive liberal patronage upon all those of other sections of the county.
