A PAGEANT AT THE GREENSBORO NORMAL

Interesting Event to be Staged in Connection With the Annual Commencement on May 20th When the Vice President Comes.

Greensboro, May 12.—The greatest feature of the State Normal college commencement this year will be the huge pageant which will be given on the opening day, May 20.—The presence as the chief speaker of the commencement of Hon. Thomas R. Marshall, vice president of the United States, will be another great drawing card. The commencement promises to draw well upon the state for attendance. The college has reached in its quarter of a century a position in the life of the state which affords a record of collegiate achievements, having a student body of young women 700 strong, whereas the largest institution for the higher education of men in North Carolina was more than a century arriving at so significant a student body.

The graduates this year are representative of every section. It is peculiarly noticeable how distinctively North Carolinian are the addresses of not only the graduating class but the entire student body.

The pageant referred to is modeled on the old English May presentations. There will be about 1,200 actors in the various dramas and other events of the day. The staging for this tremendous show will cover many acres of ground, the campus proper of the college being used and the Peabody park, a great adjoining meadow and woodland being also crafted for the outdoor theatrical purposes of this occasion. The training of the students and others who will take part in the pageant has been in progress now for months and the costs, great as it is, has been whipped into shape so that everything is in readiness for the 20th.

This will not be the first occasion of the presentation of the State Normal college pageant. It was given four years ago and is designed to be a quadrennial feature or the college life of regular renaissance. The first presentation drew a great gathering of people from all parts of the state and the pageant was heralded as the greatest of its kind ever presented in the South and equal if not superior to anything of its kind given in the country. This year the program is fuller and more varied. Several new features of interest have been added.

Chief among these new features is the Shakespearean portion of the plans which has been added to the two Shakespearean plays which were formerly presented. This innovation is due to the fact that this year is the tercentenary of Shakespeare and that consequently a revival of interest in his work exists. The program of the pageant will include the "Hus and Cry After Cupid," by Jonson, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "As You Like It," "King George and the Dragon," "Robin Hood," from lines written especially for the pageant, May pole dances, the Morris dances, and other folk scenes artistic and beautiful. The parade in chief will be before "Queen Elizabeth and her court." The pageant will begin at 2 o'clock on May 20.

The speech by Vice President Marshall will be delivered at 10:30 on Tuesday, May 23, commencement day. The diplomas will also be awarded on that day. The annual sermon to the graduates will be delivered Sunday, May 21, by Rev. N. M. Watson, of Chattanooga, Tenn. In addition to the pageant on Saturday, there will be an alumnae rally that night. At 8:30 o'clock Sunday night, in Peabody park, the annual address to the Y. W. C. A. will be made by Rev. W. T. D. Moss, of the Presbyterian church of Chapel Hill. Monday will be observed as alumnae and senior class day.

McADENSVILLE DEFEATS SPENCER IN THE TENTH.

Spencer, May 12.—In playing off a tie of 6 to 6, at the end of the ninth inning, Spencer was defeated by McAdenville by a score of 11 to 6. This was the sixteenth game for Spencer this season, and the third time she had been defeated.

For the first time the locals realized they had met their match, the visiting team being composed of strong players from several of the teams at McAdenville, Dallas, Gastonia and other places. Both teams played fine ball up to the end of the ninth and tied. In the tenth Spencer made several costly errors which brought four runs and victory to the visitors.

SPECIAL MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Sons and Daughters of Liberty of Salisbury to Honor Their Dead With Appropriate Ceremonies.

The two Salisbury Councils, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, of Salisbury, representing a membership close on to 500, will hold special memorial services on the afternoon of Sunday, May 21st, the same to take place in the auditorium of the Community Building, and to which the public is invited. This is an annual accession with the members of this fraternity and is to pay honor to their dead.

The memorial address will be delivered by Rev. L. W. Backweider, of High Point, one of the bright young members of the order, and State President J. C. Kesler, of Salisbury, will preside. It is expected that a number of visitors from the several councils in Rowan county, outside of Salisbury, will be present at this service.

"Drink to me only with thine eyes," quoted the romantic maiden. "All right. Here's looking at you," replied the practical youth.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health.

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

RESOLUTION OPPOSES FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Concord, May 12.—Disapproval of the ordaining of a minister who is a member of a fraternal order was expressed in resolutions submitted to the North Carolina Lutheran Synod at today's session of the convention here. The resolution held that the Church provides for the social and spiritual wants of men.

The resolution, which was adopted by a large vote, was considered a long step toward the morning of the Tennessee and North Carolina Synods into one body as the Tennessee Synod always has insisted on this provision.

The resolution was embodied in a report submitted by a joint committee of the Tennessee and North Carolina Synods, which is considering the proposed merger.

EDITOR BEASLEY COMING. Monroe Man Will Come to Salisbury on the 29th to Deliver the Address Before the Graduating Class of the Salisbury Schools.

Mr. Roland F. Beasley, editor of the Monroe Journal, will deliver the closing address at the city schools on the 29th of May. Superintendent Allen is in receipt of a message from Mr. Beasley saying he will be very glad to come to Salisbury on this occasion and deliver the address before the graduating class of the schools.

Mr. Beasley is one of the deepest thinkers of the state. He is a newspaper man of experience, a splendid talker and has been prominent in state affairs for some years. The schools are fortunate in securing him and our people should not fail to hear him.
