CARE FOR FAMILIES OF MEN AT FRONT

Lodge to Meet to Decide Way of Taking Care of More Than Ever Ever Dependent on the Order Before.

Louisville, Ky., July 7.—Provision for the care of members of the order who may be injured at the front after the American army lands in France, and the care and maintenance of their dependents at home will engage the attention of the Sovereign Grand Lodge at its annual convention in Louisville next September, according to a statement of Grand Sire Frank C. Goudy, of Denver, issued through the local committee on arrangements.

The head of the order dwells upon the importance of the meeting to Odd Fellows, points out that transportation companies can handle the expected 5,000 delegates and, apparently to correct any misunderstanding, makes the definite statement the convention will be held.

"Never in the history of the order," the statement recites "was there so much depending upon the assembling of American and Canadian Odd Fellowship in annual convention. In addition to transacting the ordinary business that will come before the Sovereign Grand Lodge, there will be a large volume of work to be done by our order acting in co-operation with the Red Cross and like associations in furnishing relief to all who may be subjected to the horrors of this war, the fact that Odd Fellows will soon go to the front in protection of home and of civil and religious liberty, makes it our highest duty to provide for them when injured in battle, failing in health or otherwise requiring the fraternal and helpful care of our fraternity. The protection of our widows and orphans at this time is more essential than ever, so the duties devolving upon us relatively are greater.

"In view of existing conditions it is most imperative that the Sovereign Grand Lodge meet this year for legislation on important matters that will confront us. Over $500,000 was contributed to the relief of brethren during the past year and with the world's calamity forced upon America the succor to be extended during the war will run into great figures.

"In view of the fact that transportation companies will not be largely occupied in handling troops, war material and supplies in the early part of October, when the cantonments will open, the Sovereign Grand Lodge will hold its session at Louisville, Kentucky, September 17-22 as originally scheduled."

AIR RAID ON KRUPP WORKS AT ESSEN.

Amsterdam, July 8.—A frontier correspondent of the Handelsblad reports that five persons were killed and several houses were destroyed during the bombardment of the German city of Essen, home of the great Krupp works, Friday. A correspondent of the Telegraaf says bombs were dropped on the Krupp works and that reports of damage inflicted are conflicting. Estimates of the number of attackers vary from fifteen to forty. (The official French statement of Saturday night said one French airplane raided Essen, dropping bombs on the Krupp factory.)

A semi-official German statement received here from Munster Westphalia, says: "Enemy airplanes visited the industrial district, dropping eight bombs and causing damage to the extent of 3,000 marks. There were no casualties."

METHODIST HEAR FUTURE MISSIONARY TO FOREIGN FIELD

Miss Grace McCubbins, Who Leaves Next Month for Korea, Makes a Splendid Talk at Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle yesterday morning the First Methodist congregation had the pleasure of listening to a talk from the first missionary that congregation has ever furnished for the foreign field. Miss Grace McCubbins.

Miss McCubbins leaves next month for Korea where she will be connected with the missionary hospital conducted by the Methodists.

In her talk yesterday morning Miss McCubbins spoke interestingly of her own life since the cause of missions had impressed itself on her as a girl, telling of the different influences that had pressed her on towards the mission fields. She told of her experiences at the Searritt training school in Kansas City, and closed with her expectations of doing something in Korea to make life more worth living for the people of that country.

Miss McCubbins' talk was couched in exquisite language and was a literary gem as well as an expression from a heart overflowing with joy at the thought of entering upon a life work of such moment.

Miss McCubbins' salary will be paid by the First congregation through its missionary societies. She goes to Korea for a term of five years.

SUING SOUTHERN FOR $75,000.

E. B. Allison Alleges Negligence on the Part of the Company When He Was Injured at Elmwood, November 30, 1916.

Asheville, July 7.—Alleging that as a result of negligence on the part of the defendant company he received permanent injuries to his hands, wrist and arms, when a passenger and freight train collided at Elmwood, N. SENATE PASSES A PROHIBITION MEASURE

The Food Control Bill Has an Amendment Which Give the Nation Prohibition During the Continuation of the War—House to Accept the Amendment.

Washington, July 7.—The Senate went on record today in favor of "bone dry" national prohibition during the war so far as whiskey and other beverages are concerned.

Liquor legislation was written into the food control bill in one of the Senate's bitterest contests, which would strike at consumption of distilled intoxicants by commandeering stocks in bond in addition to absolutely prohibiting their manufacture or importation. The beer and wine industries would be left undisturbed.

In lieu of the section of the House bill to prohibit the manufacture of foodstuffs into beverages of any description, the Senate substituted, by a vote of 45 to 37, a provision prohibiting manufacture and importation of distilled beverages during the war, and added, 65 to 12, a clause directing the President to take over all distilled spirits in Government bonded warehouses and pay for it on the basis of cost plus ten per cent.

While the final prohibition legislation will be evolved in conference between the two houses it is generally regarded as probable that the bill will accept the Senate's change after a fight in behalf of its original section.

PERSHING URGES PERFECT DEPARTMENT OF HIS MEN.

Asks Them to Treat the French People, Especially Women, With Greatest Courtesy—No Private Property to Be Damaged by Americans.

Paris, Saturday, July 7. (Delayed)—Major General Pershing, commander of the American forces in France, has issued the following general order to his troops:

"For the first time in history an American army finds itself in European territory. The good name of the United States of America and the maintenance of cordial relations require the perfect deportment of each member of this command.

"It is of the gravest importance that the soldiers of the American army shall at all times treat the French people, and especially the women, with the greatest courtesy and consideration.

"The valiant deeds of the French armies and the allies, by which they together have successfully maintained the common cause for three years and the sacrifices of the civil population of France in support of their armies, command our profound respect. This can best be expressed on the part of our forces by uniform courtesy to all the French people and by the faithful observance of their laws and customs.

"The intensive cultivation of the soil in France under conditions caused by the war make it necessary that extreme care be taken to do no damage to private property. The entire French manhood capable of bearing arms is in the field fighting the enemy, and it should, therefore, be a point of honor to each member of the American army to avoid doing the least damage to any property in France. Such conduct is much more reprehensible here. Honor them as you would your own people."

POLITICAL SITUATION IN GERMAN EMPIRE.

The Unrest and Dissatisfaction Grows and Reforms Now Are Being Demanded.

Berlin, July 7, via London, July 8.—This has been a day of "excursions and alarms." Following hard upon the heels of the mass of plain spoken editorial comment based on the hair trigger tension in the relation between the reichstag and the government comes the official news that Field Marshal von Hindenburg and General von Ludendorff, his chief of staff, have arrived in Berlin for a conference with the emperor.

The identity of the member of the reichstag who took the bull by the horns and launched forth in a candid exposition of the situation at home and abroad now has been established definitely. The Tageblatt names Mathias Erzberger, a leader of the clerical center, as the man who took the lid off the seething political kettle and paved the way for the resolution which resulted in a common meeting ground for all but the pan-German faction in Friday's session of the main committee.

Herr Erzberger's discussion of the internal situation is said to have been remarkable for its lucidity and candor. It was argued effectively by the utterances of Social Democrats who related the impression they had gathered at the recent Stockholm conference and in neutral countries. Their deduction was that affairs in Germany must be subjected forthwith to a thorough overhauling for the good of the German empire. The majority faction of the social democrats also is convinced that the government must make a positive declaration that it is opposed to all policies of annexing either in the east or west.

While all the sessions of the main committee are looked upon as confidential, the Tageblatt reveals enough of Friday's proceedings to warrant the conclusion that the discussion covered the entire range of internal political reforms.

The Tageblatt observes "that the progress of development is irresistible because right, reason, and necessity demand these things and the strong men whom the conservatives are calling for would have little luck himself and would bring less to the empire."
