

$$$ WAFFLES $$$

1. Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt.

2. Add milk gradually, beating constantly.

3. Add Cottolene, yolks of eggs well beaten, and whites of eggs beaten stiff.

We agree with you about waffles. They must be crisp. No! We don't doubt that your waffles are crisp. But perhaps you'd like them even more crisp.

If you would, why don't you try some economical Cottolene Waffles? Wholesome, economical Cottolene, you know, has a delightful habit of making all foods "crispy" — waffles included.

If you prefer to use your own recipe, be sure to use one-third less of economical Cottolene than you would of expensive butter.

Why "one-third less"?

Simply this:

Wholesome Cottolene is unusually rich — even much richer than butter. It contains no water or salt.

So it goes farther.

Our recipe given here has an established reputation for making delicious, crisp waffles. Will you try it?

- 3 1/2 cups flour
- 2 rounded teaspoons baking powder
- 1 level teaspoon salt
- 2 cups milk
- Yolks 4 eggs
- Whites 4 eggs
- 1 tablespoon melted Cottolene

Picture No. 1 shows how to start

4. Beat mixture thoroughly.

5. Cook in hot waffle iron well greased with Cottolene. Brown first one side then the other.

6. Serve with maple syrup.

Mrs. Hugh Brown very beautifully entertained the members of the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club and a few outside guests yesterday afternoon at her home on South Jackson street.

In a series of exciting games, Mrs. Henry Hobson was the successful contestant for the top score prize, a dainty hand-made collar, while the consolation prize, an attractive pair of yellow cordles, fell to the share of Mrs. Lynn Bernhardt.

At the close of the play, Mrs. Brown served a delicious salad-course. Those playing were: Meses. Paul H. Bernhardt, Lynn Bernhardt, Wallace Seacs, Henry Hobson, Arnold Snider, Ernest Taylor, Hayden Clement, J. H. Robertson, Walter Crump, and Pritchard Carlton; Meses Louise Neave and Luna Thompson.

CAPTAIN KILLS MATE AND HIMSELF AT SEA

Swedish Steamer Makes Port Under Second Officer, With Story of Double Tragedy.

An Atlantic Port, Jan. 30.—The Swedish steamer Anglia was brought into port tonight by her second officer, with a story of how Capt. A. B. Waerns shot and mortally wounded the first officer, G. R. Furst, at sea last Saturday, and then shot himself. The captain fell over the ship's side and his body was not recovered.

According to the second officer, Capt. Waerns had been drinking and abused Furst, who was shot in an argument that followed. The master then rushed to the ship's side and turned the pistol on himself. The first officer died before the ship could reach port.

Unless the Railway Administrator Finds a Way to Speed Up Coal Shipments Much Suffering and Inconvenience is Expected.

(By Associated Press.) Washington, Jan. 31.—A fuel famine in large sections of the east is imminent unless the railway administrator finds a way to speed up the coal movements, despite snow and ice storms which continue to hamper traffic.

The weather forecast gave little basis for hope as snow is promised for most sections east of the Mississippi river and indications are that many industrial plants in New England, parts of Pennsylvania and in the Atlantic seaboard districts may be forced to close for lack of fuel.
