THE ROYAL GOAT

I would not think it too surprising to hear the Kaiser's tired of kaising. The crimes of all his kultural nation, the sins of all his generation, and every bloody deed infernal of every general and colonel, are charged against the reigning Billy, which is enough to drive him silly. No other monarch has been so hated, no other king so cursed and hated. When he is in times of peace was kaising, he gave himself much advertising as Lord of War, with fist of metal, a sort of scrapping Captain Kettel. He tried to pose as Mars incarnate, and now he pays and mutters, "darnit!" He may in truth be quite a rabbit, but since he got us in the habit of thinking he is bloodshed's booster, a crowing and a fighting rooster, we charge to him the misdemeanors of warriors and submariners. Some correspondents say that Billy has long had feet extremely chilly; he hates to see men go further with their red carnival of murder. However that be, the blame he shoulders, and will until he dies and molders. The crop of execration rises, however modestly he kaisers. Before our eyes he's largely bulkin' in photographs, as Mars and Vulcan.

Do your bond buying early.

He who buys early helps to inspire others.

It is either buy Uncle Sam's bonds or pay his tax collectors. Take your choice.

You will either be a creditor or a debtor of the government. If you buy bonds you will be a creditor and will collect interest. If you do not you will be a debtor only and pay taxes for yours.

HOGS MORE PLENTIFUL

Hogs promise to be more plentiful this year in this state. Figures at hand indicate that many animals for breeding purposes are being brought in the state and that the amount of pork next winter will be larger than last. This is as it should be, and if this increased interest keeps up it will be but a few years until the meat supply will be vastly increased in North Carolina and we will have ended one of the bad habits of former years—namely shipping in our meats.

LEES ARE READY.

Loyal Americans should watch out for German propaganda and lies made in the interest of the enemies of America. Do not be deceived. Do not be fooled. Listen to no lies and startling stories which reflect on the government, the bonds. Some poor little ignorant fools are telling it that these bonds are worthless, that the man who buys will lose his money. A man who will say this is either an ignorant or a treacherous fellow. No man has a right to speak out of ignorance, no man has a right to speak out of a treacherous heart. There is no use in any man being ignorant or so vital a matter, he can learn the truth. If he cannot he can keep his mouth shut, and it is time for him to learn that he must, that he will be kept in his mouth shut. Lies are always ready to spring into action. Enemies of this nation are ai-

PEOPLE NEEDING TO BE AROUSED STAND IDLY BY

With the French and British fighting for their lives, their homes, their honor and the safety of the world's civilization, as they are to day, every American who knows how to pray ought to be on his knees. In every church the usual routine ought to give away to a service of prayer and supplication to God. This ought to be a day of sack cloth and ashes. Tomorrow ought to be a day when Americans get out of their ease and self-satisfaction and recognize before the God of Heaven their dependence on Him and their great need of Him.

Surrounded by thousands and hundreds of thousands of brutal men in arms, directed by the devils of another world in their wild, mad determination to conquer the world, our allies who have stood between us and this horrible thing which Belgium and Serbia and France and Rumania have experienced, the little thin line of men representing the civilization of the world are fighting their battle, our battle.

Over here we drink and make merry. Over there they drink the blackest, bitterest drugs that human beings ever pressed to the lips. Over here, we will spend the day joy ridding, in ease and stuffing our stomachs. Over there it will be long hours, intense strain and suffering, facing and passing through the portals of death by the thousands.

Oh, God in Heaven, will nothing arouse America? Is there any way on the top side of the earth to get some realization of the conditions into the heads of our folks? Will we rush on in our indifference and utter thoughtlessness into the very jaws of death and hell for our nation?

Men whom the state and nation have educated, trained at great cost to serve are paying no heed to this call. It is an educational problem, a process of enlightenment, and yet there are so many men, trained for this service, leaders of men, who are ways at hand with a nice, plump lot of dangerous lies. They are frequently sugar-coated and made over so that some good people are misled to repeat them innocently. Watch out for these, fight against them, and fight the men and women who bear them.

SLAUGHTERING CALVES.

Any day, almost any time of any day, one can see the express company handling large numbers of calves. These little animals have been butchered and are being shipped. When trains going north pull into the Salisbury station daily truck loads of these slaughtered calves are awaiting by the side of the track. The most of them come from up the west.

Good people, of North Carolina, this is nothing short of a shame. It ought to be illegal. It was made illegal some years ago, but the legislature cowardly listened to the selfish whines of the men who would profit by the slaughter and repealed the law. This is a fact as we recall the matter. No wonder we are at the mercy of the beef trust. No matter we are called upon to eat less meat. No wonder that milk is too scarce to permit little children to have sufficient to nurse their little bodies. We are butchering all calves, rather than take the trouble to raise them. Something ought to be done to regulate or end this matter. The extent to which it runs is nothing short of a disgrace, a burning shame.

STATE PREMIUM LIST BEING PRINTED

The North Carolina extension service makes the official announcement that the composite premium list is in the hands of the printer and will be ready for distribution this month. Secretaries of fairs are urged to wait until this list, which has been assembled to aid the fairs of the state, reaches them, before going to press with their own catalogues.

This bulletin contains the rules and regulations governing state aid, provision of judges and other items of interest to the Secretaries of fairs. Application blanks, asking for state aid and the furnishing of judges, will be mailed out with the bulletin. A new plan places the county farm demonstration agents in closer touch with the officials of the fairs.

This premium list will be of great value to the fairs, in helping them standardize their catalogues. It has been prepared for the fairs and the public. The North Carolina extension service asks the patient indulgence of the fairs in this matter, until the material can be distributed.

PRODUCTION OF 10,000 NEW AUTOMOBILE TRUCKS IS IN PROGRESS FOR THE ARMY.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy. It is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. MUTT AND JEFF LAST NIGHT

Bud Fisher's Characters Appear in the Flesh at the Colonial Theatre in "Divorced."

"Mutt and Jeff Divorced," was the attraction at the Colonial theatre last evening and it was witnessed by a fairly good sized audience. These Bud Fisher characters in the flesh gave about the usual Mutt and Jeff show, but it probably was supported by a poorer chorus than such attractions seen here in the past. Earl Redding made an admirable Mutt and Jerry Salivan was a good Jeff, but this was about all there was to the show. About the best specialty of the evening was Fred Roberts, the man of many voices. The closing scene, a court room, with Mutt and Jeff seeking divorce, was what might be called a rough house. While it was probably not up to some of the Mutt and Jeff attractions seen here it was about all that was expected.

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadorsville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before.

I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape.

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."

Theodore Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects, it has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it.

One Hundred and Forty-Two Years of Labor and Struggle

THE American people fought their first battle for liberty and the rights of self-government one hundred and forty-two years ago.

At this time, and for many years thereafter, their realization of their national aspirations and of the goal toward which they were really striving was vague and indistinct. But step by step they struggled onward and upward a light which grew clearer as their eyes and minds slowly opened to its significance. Today, as a result of their struggles and their sacrifices, we possess and enjoy our priceless American institutions.

These institutions must be preserved. The structure so laboriously reared in these one hundred and forty-two years will be utterly destroyed if we do not spring to its defense with every atom of our energy and determination. This is not a situation which may be trifled with, or evaded, or put off. It is one which must be met now—today—no matter what sacrifices it may entail, or what the cost may be.
