WIZARD AUTO COMPANY OFFICERS ARE INDICTED

Charlotte, Jan. 21.—Warrants charging the use of the mails with intent to defraud have been issued for five officials of the Wizard Auto company of this city.

Those named in the indictments are F. W. Edwardy, president; O. F. Edwardy, Jr., vice-president and secretary; R. L. Walters, general manager; and T. A. Macewan and H. E. Lowe, directors. Young Edwardy and Walters were the only ones located tonight and they were brought before Squire J. P. Cobb, United States commissioner, who placed their bonds at $3,000 for the appearance at a hearing Saturday morning.

The men under charge have organized a company for the manufacture of a small auto to be sold for $395. The warrants are the result of month's activities on the part of postal inspectors and an audit made by government officials at the company's request. In December efforts were made to have warrants issued thru the district court at Greensboro, but the company asked that an official audit be made of the books.

NEGRO UNDERTAKER CHASES FRIEND WITH TWO CORPSES

Asheville, Jan. 21.—"Murders of the Rue Morgue" will hold no thrills for Austin Robinson, a negro who told Judge Wells in police court yesterday how he was "scared half crazy" by Arthur Reynolds, when the latter negro invited Robinson into the rear room of an undertaking establishment where he worked, and then chased Robinson all over the place carrying the corpses of two children beneath his arms.

Robinson said he dropped into the place to visit Reynolds, when the latter asked him to come into the rear room. Reynolds then picked up the bodies and took after the terrified negro, who found his escape cut off by his erstwhile friend. Robinson related how he dropped to his knees, pleading to be let out of the room, and said Reynolds kept him in terror for more than an hour, bringing the affair to a climax when he drew a revolver and pretended that he was going to end Robinson's days. Judge Wells continued the case until Thursday, but suggested that he believed Reynolds ought to serve two years on the county roads for having cheated Robinson out of that many years' growth.

Salisbury, N. C., Jan. 20, 1921.

In submitting the report of the Fourth Red Cross Roll Call, I regret exceedingly that the response has not been more generous, but I can appreciate more than any one the constant demand on the people. I desire most earnestly to say that of all the drives that have taken place in the city of Salisbury in the last year or two, the money given to the Red Cross has been of more real value and help to those in need than any other proposition.

The amount is not sufficient, I am sorry to say, to carry on the work the Red Cross has mapped out for the ensuing year and I ask those who have not already contributed to this grand work to send their checks to Miss Anne Neave, Sec'y, Red Cross, Community Bldg. Respectfully submitted,
 A. H. BOYDEN,
 Chairman, Fourth Red Cross Roll Call.

RUNNING TRAINS ANNOY GENERAL JULIAN CARR

Raleigh, Jan. 21.—Representative R. O. Everett, of Durham, believes that General Julian Carr is entitled to undisturbed slumbers between the hours of 11 at night and 6 in the morning and he proposes by a bill introduced in the legislature today, that the distinguished Durham citizen shall lie peacefully in the arms of Morpheus during these hours, the Southern railway notwithstanding.

Mr. Everett introduced a bill today to make it unlawful for trains to operate within the corporate limits of the Bull city between 11 and 6, explaining that it was the nocturnal comfort of the senatorial engines and the early trains that run through Durham annoy General Carr, whose handsome home abuts the yards of the Southern. The bill was referred to the public service corporations committee of the house.

JOHN MAYES GIVEN FIVE YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

Fleed Guilty to Charge of Manslaughter—John Wallace Fined $200

Winston-Salem, Jan. 20.—In superior court today Judge Webb sentenced John Mayes, a 17-year-old Greensboro negro to a term of five years in state prison, defendant having pleaded guilty to a charge of manslaughter, thru his counsel, being charged with recklessly driving an automobile, just before the Christmas holidays, thru Waughtown when it ran over and killed Rev. John R. Herndon, pastor of Waughtown Presbyterian church.

A nol pro's was accepted in the case against two negroes who were riding in the car with Mayes at the time of the fatal accident.

Attorney John C. Wallace, indicted for operating an automobile while intoxicated and violating the speed limit, was convicted of the latter offense. In another case, tried last Saturday, the jury found Wallace guilty of operating a car while intoxicated. Judge Webb's judgment was that Wallace pay a fine of $200 and pay damage done ex-Judge E. B. Jones' car, which was struck by Wallace's machine.

Judgment was reserved in the first conviction, the court declaring that if Wallace operated any car between now and the March term of court he would be given a road sentence.

Tellin' Men How to Wear a Hat

(Vanity Fair)
 Of all a man's problems of dress the hat question is the worst. But this difficulty of finding a becoming hat would be far less tiring if men would only learn that the first point in fitting a hat is to have it set well down on the head—in the case of a soft hat, as far down as possible; for nothing throws a man's proportion out so much as to wear a hat perched on the top of his head. A Beau Brummel once said that, if one wanted to see how a hat should be worn, one should notice the first street "bum" one came across, leaning against a lamp post at the street corner. He wears his hat the way it should be worn.

the efficiency of our Sunday schools as factors in the religious education of boys." However special work is planned for other club leaders outside of organized boys classes and courses in scouting, and employed boys work will also be offered. The work promises to be of unusual interest covering not only a series of studies on the nature of boy life but some actual work in doing things that must be done—such as hiking, scoutcraft, games, boys songs, etc.

The course is open to all men interested in boy life—who are already doing some work with boys, or who may desire so to do, or who may desire to study because of their interest in boys in general. There is no enrollment fee but each student is expected to purchase a copy of the textbook "Boyology" and a copy of the scout or one of the C. C. T. P. handbooks. These books are on sale at Beurbum's book store.

Feb. 1. Endorments may be made through the Sunday schools superintendents or at the Y. M. C. A. office or through the local scout commissioner. Use will be made in this course of the new Y. M. C. A. gymnasium that is being put in shape for use.
