PAGE TWO

SALISBURY EVENING POST, FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1921

Mothers! Give The Little Ones Syrup Pepsin

They like Dr. Coldwell's, and it quickly relieves their constipation and headaches.

REGIN to teach the child regular daily Belining the child regular daily elimination as young as possible, and much constipation will be avoided later in life. The most convenient hour throughout life is immediately upon arising. It does not then interfere with play, school or work.

When in spite of your efforts a mem-ber of the family becomes constipated, give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the size dose directed on the bottle. It is a mild, gentle laxative safe for young babies; effective for grownups. It is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, and most economical as a sixty cent bottle will last you many months.

cent bottle will last you many months. For your information, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aro-matics. Look on it as a good family friend, useful to relieve constipation and symptoms like headache, bilious-ness, colds, fever, bad breath, loss of appetite and sleep. It is no exaggera-tion to say that millions of families are never without a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It safeguards their health.

뺥놰슻놰슻놰슻놙슻윩슻눼슻싥킃낹킃뇑킃탒깼춙깼싢맖丙딀싢믋 ************** SY AVENI BUY EATABLES FROM US Strawberries Friday.

Car Bananas,

Apples, Oranges, Grape Fruit, Lettuce, Celery, Tomatoes.

We invite our friends to inspect

TRY IT FREE Send me your name and ad-dress and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 513 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois. Everybody now and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.

sion, feeling the emotions which no no one may know until he senses the great weight of responsibility for himself, I must utter my be-our foundations of political and sicial belief stand unshaken, a pre- fest understanding. vious inheritance to ourselves, an fore the bar of civilization.

TEXT OF

said:

both.

(By The Associated Press) Washington, March 4.—Mr. Harding in his inaugural address

"My countrymen, when one sur-veys the world about him after the great storm, noting the marks of he breathes the clarified atmosphere with a strange mingling of regret and new hope. We have seen world passion spend it fury, but we contemplate our republic unshaken and hold our civilization secure, Liberty-liberty within the law-and civilization are inseperable and though both were threatened we find them now secure, and there comes to Americans the profound assurance that our representative government is the highest expression and surest guaranty of

"Standing in this presence, mindful of the solemnity of this occa-

good will and promoting according to the second sec stance my determine. "Our eyes never will be blind to a developing measure, our ears among peoples, among govern-never deaf to the call of civiliza- ments, and it will inaugurate an ship and harbor no hate. But sential to peace. America, our America, the America "We must understand that

INAUGURAL STAND

PRESIDENT HARDING'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS

destruction and yet rejoicing in the ruggedness of the things which withstood it, if he is an American intelligent, dependable inure to the benefit of private in liberate, popular will of America. In de- dividual, corporation and combi-liberate questioning of a suggest- nation, but all above the norma on which the founders wrought We ed change of national policy where shall flow into the defense chest of have been civil, human and religi- internationality was to supercede the nation. There is something ous liberty verified and glorided, nationality, we turned to a refer- inherently wrong, something out In the beginning, the old world endum to the American people. of accord with the ideals of repre-scoffed at our experiment, today There was ample discussion and sentative democracy when one our foundations of political and si- there is a public mandate in mani-portion of our citizenship turns its activity to private gain amid de-fensive war while another s fight-

This is the completed insugural stand where President Harding took the oath, today.

"America is ready to encourage, inspiring example of freedom and eager to initiate, anxious to parcivilization to all mankind. Let us ticipate in any seemly program express renewed and strengthened likely to lessen the probability of devotion, in grateful reverence for war and promote that brother-civilization to all mankind. Let us express renewed and strengthened devotion, in grateful reverence for the immortal beginning, and utter our confidence in the supreme ful-filment. Progress Proves Wisdom. "The recorded progress of our republic, materially and spiritually, in itself proves the wisdom of the inherited policy of non-involvement in old world affairs. Confident of our ability to work out our own destiny and jealousy guarding our right to do so, we seek no part in targled. We will accept no respon-sibility except as our own con-science and judgment in each in-stance my determine.

tion. We recognize the new order in the world, with the closer con-tacts which progress has wrought. We sense the call of the human dently for the promotion of their heart for fellowship, fraternity better relationships and nations and cooperation. We crave friend- will promote the comities so estural problems, for the emission of unnecessary interference of gov-ernment with business, for an end to government's experiment in bus-iness and for more efficient busi-ness in government administration. With all of this must attend a mindfulness of the human side of all activities so that social, indus-trial and economic justice will be squared with the purposes of a righteous people. "With the nationwide induction of womanhood into our political life, we may count upon he rintu-itions, her refinement, her intelli-gence and her influence to exait the social order. We count upon her ex-

Our fundamental law recognizes no class, no group, no section. There must be none in legislation or administration. The supreme inspiration is the common weal. Humanity hungers for interna-tional peace and we crave it with all mankind. My most reverest prayer for America is for indus-trial peace, with its rewards, wide-ly and generally distributed amid the inspirations of equal opportu-nity.

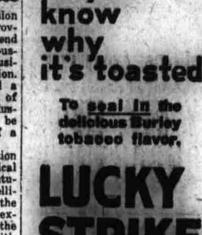

'No one justly may deny the No one justly may deny the equality of opportunity which made us what we are. We have mistaken unpreparedness to em-brace it (to be a challenge of the reality), and due concern for mak-ing all citizens fit for participation will give added strength of citi-tenshp and magnify our schieve-ment

"If revolution insists upon over-turning established order, let oth-er peoples make the tragic experi-ment. There is no place for it in America. When world war threatened civilization we pledged our resources and our lives to its preservation, and when revolution threatens we unfurl the flag of law and order and renew our con-secration. Ours is a constitution-al freedom where the popular will is the law supreme and minorities are sacredly protected. Our re-visions, reformations and evolu-tions reflect a deliberate judgment and an orderly progress, and we mean to cure our ills, but never destroy or permit destruction by force. "If revolution insists upon overing, sacrificing or dying for na-tional preservation.

had rather submit our indus-"I had rather submit our indus-trial controversies to the confer-ence table in advance than to a settlement table after conflict and suffering. The earth is thirsting for the cup of good will. Under-standing is its fountain source-I would like to acclaim an era of good fashing amid dependable pros-perity and all the bleasings which attend.

Protection of Industries. "It has been proved again and again that we cannot while throw-ing our markets open to the world, maintain American the war torn nations, and these ob-ligations must be provided for. No civilization can survive repudiation. "We can reduce the abnormal ex-penditures and we will. We can John Barton Payne, who has OF BAPTIST FAITH been secretary of the interior for a year, plans to make his home in Washington, but will devote some of his time to the Chicago park project in which he was a moving spirit before he was called to Washington early in the war as general counsel for the Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corpora-tion. He also has been a member of the Federal Power Commission and Director General of railroads. living and opportunity and hold our industrial eminence in such un-equal competition. There is a lur-ing fallacy in the theory of banish-ed barriers of trade, but preserv-ed American standards require our binder undustrian costs to be Only Nine Churches in Washing-ten Can Count Former Presi-dents as Members. strike at war taxation and we must. timacy and none may receive ex-cept as he gives. We have not strengthen ours in accordance with our resources or our genius, not-ably on ous own continent, where a galaxy of republic reflect the glory of new world democracy, but in the new order of finance and trade we mean to promote, enlarge activities and seek expanded confi-"Perhans we can make an angle and the mast face the grim necessity. We must face the grim necessity, with full knowledge that the task is to be solved, and we must pro-ceed with a full realization that no statute enseted by man can repeal the inexorable laws of nature. Our most dangerous tendency is to ex-pect too much of government and at the same time do for it too little. "We contemplate the immediate task of putting our public home. We must face the grim necessity, <text> Washington, March 4.-The twenty-ninth President is the first and Director General Fower Commission and Director General of railroads. Albert Sydney Burleson will go back to Austin, Texas., to practice law and to look after his private interests there after eight years as "We contemplate the immediate task of putting our public house-hold in order. We need a rigid and yet same economy, combined with fiscal justice and it must be at-Postmaster General. Edwin T. Meredith, who succeeded Mr. Houston as secretary of tended by individual prudence and thrift which are so essential to this trying hour and reassuring for the agriculture a year ago, will return to Des Moines to look after his farm magazino and other inter-ests. He also has been a member future. Retention of War's Reaction "The business world reflects the disturbance of war's reaction. Herein flows the life blood of ma-terial existence. The economic mechanism is intricate and its parts interdependent and has suffered the abooks and has institut to here ests. He also has been a inclusion. Joshua W. Alexander, after two years' service as secretary of com-merce, will go to his old home at <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> merce, will go to his old home at Gallitan. Mo., to resume the prac-tice of law and, as he says, to "do a little farming on the side." William B .Wilson, another of the original Wilson Cabinet officers, has accepted an appointment on the International Joint Commission. TO FARMER WITH GOOD COT-TON SEED: The Cleveland Oil and Fertilizer company will close for the season March 15, and won't be in the mar-ket for seed after that date 2-24-10t The next time you buy calomel ask for :1(e) The purified and refined calomel tablets that are nauscaless, safe and sure. Medicinal virtues reta only in sealed packs AV a of The discovery of silk is attribut-

Do you

LABINE OFFICER

BACK TO OLD JOBS

Lawyers Predominated in

the Retiring Cabinet,

Numbered Six, Two

Washington, March 4.—Most of the cabinet officers who retired to-day will resume the work they gave up to become members of Wood-row Wilson's official family. One or two of them, however, have not yet made definite plans for the future.

Lawyers predominated in the outgoing cabinet, numbering six. There also were two publishers and one college professor. Bainbridge Colby, who retires

Bainbridge Colby, who retires after one year's service as secre-tary of state, will return to the practice of law in New York City, but before he settles down to that work he may visit Scotland. Newton D. Baker will turn from the direction of the war de-partment, to the practice of law in his home town Cleveland. He has had five year's service as secretary his nome town Cleveland. He has had five years' service as secretary of war and also has served as chairman of the Federal Power Commission and the Council of Na-tional Defense. A Mitchell Palmer, retiring at-torney general, will resume his law practice with offices in his home city of Stroughburg. Pa. and also city of Stroudsburg, Pa., and also in Washington. He will retain his home in Pennsylvania, but will re-side in Washington a considerable portion of each year and will have portion of each year and will have as his law partners three lawyers who have been closely associated with him in his public work: Frank Davis, Jr., formerly as as-sistant attorney general; Robert R. Scott and Seifords M. Stellwagen. Josephus Daniels, one of the four Wilson cabinet officers who remained on the job the full eight years, will leave tomorrow for Bal-eigh. N. C. to resume his duties as eigh, N. C., to resume his duties as mer naval secretary will arrive sideration. He was a university professor before entering the cabinet in 1913 as secretary of agri-culture but has not decided whether he will return to educa-

Were Editors.

learn its causes and reduce its evil consequences by sober and tested methods. Where genius has made for great possibilities, justice and happiness must be reflected in a greater common welfare. Service, the Supreme Commitment

"Service, the supreme commitment ment of life. I would rejoice to acclaim the era of the golden rule and crown it with the autocracy of service. I pledge an administration wherein all the agencies of government as called to serve and ever promote an understanding of government purely as an expression of the popular will.

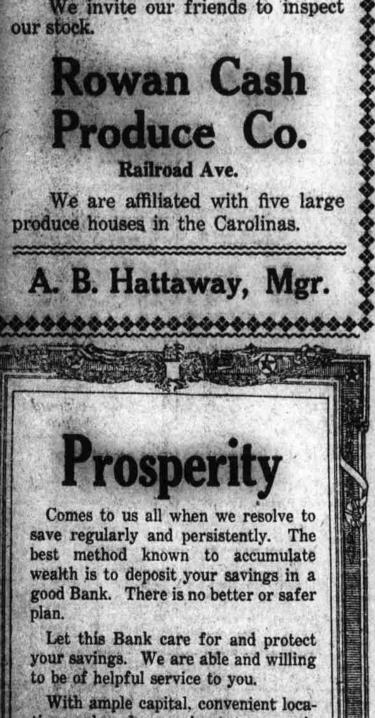

one cannot stand in this pres-ence and be unmindful of the tre-mendous responsibility. The world upheaval has added heavily to our tasks. But with the realization comes the surge of high resolve, and there is reassurance in belief in the God given desting of "One cannot stand in this presin the God-given destiny of our re-public. If I felt that there is to be sole responsibility in the exe-cutive for the America of tomor-eigh News and Observer. The forrow, I should shrink from the burden. But here are a hundred mil-lions, with common concern and ahared responsibility, answerable to God and country. The republic summons them to their duty and I invite cooperation. "I accept my part with single mindedness of purpose and humili-ty of spirit and implore the favor and cuidance of God in His Heaven.

"I accept my part with single mindedness of purpose and humill-ty of spirit and implore the favor and guidance of God in His Heaven. With these I am unafraid and con-fidently face the future.

"I have taken the solemn oath of office on that passage of Holy Writ wherein it is asked: 'What doth the whether he will return to educa-tional work or enter the commer-cial field. He has been head of the, treasury for a year and also a member of the Federal Reserve Board. Chairman of the Board of Vocational Education and a mem-ber of the Council of National De-Lord require of thee but to do just-ly and to love mercy and walk humbly with thy God.' This I plight to God and country."

HARDING IS FIRST

gence and her influence to exait the social order. We count upon her ex-ercise of the full privileges and the performance of the duties of citi-zenship to speed the attainment of the highest state. "I wish for an America no less alert in guarding against dangers from within than it is watchful against enemies from without. Our fundamental law recognizes no class, no group, no section.

tion, and modern equipment we are in position to render extraordinary service.

Capital ..... $ 100,000.00 Resources .... 1,000,000.00

CLAR CO.

SALISBURY HARR HIT HUST COMPANY?

Ioundation laid by understand that ties the inspired fathers, can be a party of trade bind nations in closest intimacy and none may receive exo no permanent military alliance. It can enter into no polítical commitments, nor assume any economic obligations or subject our decisions to any other than our own authority. "I am sure our own people will the not misunderstand nor will the world misconstrue. We have no thought to impede the paths to closer relationship. We wish to promote understanding. We want to do our part in making offensive

"Perhaps we can make no more helpful contribution by example, than prove a republic's capacity to emerge from the wreckage of war. While the world's embitterwarfare so hateful that governments and peoples who resort to it must prove the righteousness of their cause or stand as outlaws be-war. While the world's embitter-ed travail did not leave us devas-tated lands nor desolated cities, left no gaping wounds, no breast with hate, it did involve us in the delirium of expenditure, inex-panded currency and credits, in un-balanced industry, in unspeakable waste and disturbed relationship. While it uncovered our portion of hateful selfishness at home, it al-so revealed the heart of America as sound and fearless, and beating Association for Counsel. "We are ready to associate ourselves with the nations of the world, great and small, for conference, for counsel, to seek the expressed views of world opinion, ercommend a way to approximate

