

HARDING MAY SIT IN WHITE HOUSE AND TALK TO EVERY TOWN IN U. S. BEFORE HIS ADMINISTRATION ENDS

New York, Dec. 13.—President Harding, who set a record for long distance oratory on Armistice Day by addressing simultaneously three great throngs of more than 100,000 persons, gathered at Arlington National Cemetery, San Francisco and New York, may easily find himself talking to an audience running high into the millions and scattered through every state in the union, before he leaves the White House.

It would be relatively simple, he declared, to set an equipment in the capitals of the 48 states through which 150,000 persons in each city—a total of 7,200,000—could hear a ceremony in Washington or elsewhere, where it is distinctly as if they were seated within a few yards of the speaker.
