Three Children Dead Others Wounded, One Fatally, When Parent Uses His Shotgun.

(By Associated Press)

York, S. C., Sept. 7 .- With the death in the Gastonia hospital last night of Lela Taylor, 16, and Newton Taylor, 12, three members of the family of J. M. Taylor of Clover, S. C., are dead from gunshot wounds alleged to have been in-fflicted by William C. Farris, elderly cotton mill operative.

Three other members are being treated for wounds and it is reported here that Miss Gertrude Taylor, 18 years old, is probably fatally wounded.

Farris was rushed to the state prison at Columbia last night as a measure of safe keeping when feeling ran high in the Clover vicinity as reports of the tragedy

An inquest was held over the bodies of Farris' victims today, the jury returning a verdict that the three came to their deaths at the hands of Farris.

Farris is known throughout this section as "Fighting Bill," son of "Ku Klux" John Farris, a name given his father as a result of a battle he is reported to have fought with the klansmen in the early

According to Tom Perry, a neighbor and eye witness, a quarrel between Farris and the Taylor children was renewed this afternoon, and Farris is alleged to have said "This thing has to be settled and I might as well settle it now." With that he grabbed two shot guns, a double barrel and a single barrel, and began firing at the Taylors and Johnson, who were in the Taylor yard and the Taylor porch 40 feet across the Greatly Curtailed By Taking Off of Nos. 45 46, 15 and 16.

Four passenger trains in and out f Salisbury were discontinued today by the Southern Railway ir accordance with announcement made the first of the week these trains making their last runs yesterday and being No. 15, Salisbury to Asheville; No. 16, Asheville to Salisbury; No. 45, Greensbero to Charlotte, and No. 46, Charlotte to Greensboro.

No. 15 to Asheville was the oarly morning train, leaving here at 6:05 a. m., and No. 16 was the last night train from Asheville, arriving in Salisbury at 10 p. m. No. 45 was the local from Greensboro to Charlotte and reached Salisbury at 2:30 p. m., and No. 46 was its sister train from Charlotte to Greensboro, coming here at 4:30 p. m.

The taking off of No. 15 to Asheville puts the work of this train on Western No. 11, which will carry the sleepers from 31 main line for Asheville. No. 11 is now the only through passenger train to Asheville after No. 35 at train to Asheville after No. 35 at 10 p. m. until No. 11 runs again the following day. However, No. 12, the Salisbury to Barber to Charlotte train leaving here at 2:45 connects at Barber with No. 21 from Goldsboro to Asheville.

The discontinuance of No. 16 from Asheville puts the work of this train on No. 12, coming Salisbury at 8:05 p. m. and is the only train from the west after that time until No. 36 at 11:30 a. m. the next day.

The taking off of No. 45 cuts out the afternoon local to Concord and Charlotte and the only train after No. 11 runs at 8:30 a. m. south, Pullman, No. 37, at 9 a. m., is No.

early in th morning, and No. 36 comes in about noon, with No. 12 following early in the evening. Then parties from Charlotte can get to Salisbury at 2 p. m. by taking No. 14, the Charlotte-Barber-Salisbury train.

Parties desiring to get out of Salisbury to China Grove, Kannapolis and Concord any time after No. 11 runs at 8:40 a. m. and before No. 35 runs early in the evening will have to travel by way of the Salisbury-Concord jitney.

It is hoped these arrangements will not be of any considerable duration, the Southern having announced the taking off of these trains is for the purpose of releasing locomotives with which to handle freight and clean up the congestion due to the strike and for the prompt movement of coal.

Strike Leaders Called to Chicago to Discuss Injunction of Attorney General.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Sept. 7.—There are no conferences now in progress between leaders of the railroad strike and railroad presidents and none have been held since the formal gathering in New York last month, it was asserted here today by J. P. Noolan, chief of the brotherhood of the electrical workers, which is one of the seven rail unions on a national strike.

The meeting of the strikers' policy committee, called for next week at Chicago, is to consider the general strike policy and also what shall be done in view of the injunction applications by the attorney general.

B. W. Jewell, chairman of the executive council's strike organi-executive council's strike organization, is now enroute to Chicago, Mr. Noolan said, after visiting several railroad centers but during the trip through these sections he called no meeting of union executives. Mr. Noolan said he was not informed as to whether the chairman had taken occasion to meet any of the rail presidents.
