

PERSONAL AND NEWS NOTES.

Of the 46 white schools in Northampton 38 are taught by ladies and 8 by gentleman.

The "green goods" men of New York are flooding the country with circulars offering counterfeit money very low.

Quite a large crowd at Jackson last Monday. Many people were engaged in horse trading which seems to be a favorite occupation at Jackson on first Mondays.

There are 385 young men attending the University at Chapel Hill. This has been the most prosperous year it has enjoyed since the war. The future prospects for it are very bright.

President Cleveland and Secretary Gresham spent a few days the past week hunting in the Eastern part of this State. They visited Roanoke Island and points of historical interest in that vicinity.

We will send the Weekly New York World and the PATRON AND GLEANER both for one year for $1.50. The PATRON AND GLEANER and the Cosmopolitan, one of the best Magazines published, for $2.00.

Lasker Grange is still growing. New members are being taken in and old ones coming back to their first love. The members are saving money by buying together. Partisan politics is never discussed in the Grange.

The mail schedule on the Roanoke and Tar River rail road has been changed as suggested by the PATRON AND GLEANER and the mail now comes through without delay. Raleigh and Norfolk papers arrive here at 2 p. m. on day of publication.

After a suspension of only one week, Mr. E. W. Gerrish, Superintendent of the Cummer Co's. extensive lumber operations in Northampton, has resumed work. This is a great benefit to a large number of working men in this county and puts much money in circulation in this vicinity.

Dr. W. S. Black, Superintendent of Oxford Orphan Asylum, has accepted the office of Presiding Elder for the Warrenton District of the North Carolina Conference, and tendered his resignation as Superintendent of the Asylum. The Directors will meet soon to elect his successor.

About a year ago a Brooklyn, N. Y., firm flooded the country with circulars offering to enlarge pictures free of charge. Many unsuspecting people sent their photographs and soon received acknowledgement of same, with request to send a small amount for a nice frame to put the picture in. Those who did so received about a 25 cent frame for which they paid from $2.00 to $3.00. Those who refused to send the money for the frames have never received their photographs back. Another firm is now claiming to be settling up the affairs of the old concern and want a two cent stamp sent them to pay the postage for the return of the photograph. Those who send the stamp of course will never hear from it again as that is another scheme to fleece the unsuspecting. Whenever a firm offers a dollar for ten cents it is safest to let it alone.

Lasker Locals.

The mail schedule has been changed so that our mail comes on time.

Farm work has progressed very rapidly in this vicinity for the past few days. Some guano is being brought.

Home raised meat and lard have been on sale here nearly all the winter, taking the place of the Western product.

Mr. E. W. Gerrish resumed work last Tuesday, much to the joy of the large number of men whom he employs.

Miss Georgie M. Brown, of Murfreesboro, who is teaching near Jackson, was a welcome visitor to our village last Saturday.

Lasker schools are still well attended. The teachers are doing good work and not a word of complaint has been heard from any source since the schools opened.

The teachers of Lasker school, Misses Annie and Margaret Parker, and Miss Medie Parker and her brother spent last Friday night very pleasantly at Rev. Wm. Grant's.

Mr. Smith N. Brickhouse, of Norfolk, Va., spent last Tuesday night very pleasantly with his old friend, Mr. Jere Brown. Mr. Brickhouse has many warm friends in this county who are always glad to see him.

Rehoboth Items.

We are glad that we have no sickness to report this week.

The farmers seem to be taking the advantage of the very nice weather which we are having this week.

The cotton acreage of this section will not be reduced this year as much as it ought to be, so I understand. Good many are sowing oats this week, but say they don't expect much of a crop as it is most too late to sow them.

The farmers of this section will not use as much home made manure this season as they would have used had it been favorable weather for making it.

Mr. W. J. Boone will leave us this week for Hampton, Va., his place of business. We hope his trip, this time, has been pleasant enough to induce him to come again soon.

The Rehoboth Literary Society met in regular session last Tuesday night. The leaders and members of the society ought to feel greatly encouraged in their work. The people of the neighborhood manifest their interest in the society by their regular attendance. The society has decided to close after April, till the fall. Mention will be made later of an entertainment which we hope to give to the public. NEWBY. Rehoboth, N. C., Mar. 7, 1894.

Fashions in Girls' Names.

The most important change in the naming of girls has been the growing disinclination to give them more than one name, the object of this being that when a woman marries she may easily combine her full maiden name with her new surname, writes Mrs. Hamilton Mott in the March Ladies' Home Journal. A three-word signature is much prettier and more convenient than one composed of four words. Then, too, immediate recognition of her own, as well as that of her husband's surname, and the convenience in genealogical research and legal transactions, are two reasons of sufficient importance to warrant the combination were there no others.

With this fashion in girls' names has come, as in boys, a disinclination to use diminutive or pet names. Mellies, Maggies, Katties, and the various feminine "ies" and "ys" are as scarce as their masculine counterparts Jimmie and Willie. Mary, Margaret and Katharine have taken the place of the former, and James and William of the latter.

WINDSOR LETTERS.

MARRIAGE OF DR. DUNSTAN TO MISS TAYLOR.—THE MILLS RESUME WORK—PERSONALS, &c.

Mr. Alf. Holloman, of Lewiston, spent the day in Windsor last Tuesday.

Miss M. A. Dunstan returned from Williamston on Monday night where she has been for sometime past.

Mr. Jas. D. Bateman, the popular travelling salesman, was in town Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Misses Daisy and Lillie Brett, of Lewiston, spent the day, Tuesday, with their brother's, Mr. Geo. T. Brett's family.

Mr. W. R. Johnson has finished the term of his school near Wellington and is now hard at work on his farm about two miles in the county.

We learn from the Manager of the County Farm that he had a death among the poor on last Friday—Philip Rawls. He was about 65 years old.

The young people of the town had a storm party at the residence of Dr. S. B. Kenny, about two miles in the county, on last Wednesday night. They enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mr. Wiley G. Askew has returned from Martin county where he has been for several months teaching school. He states that he thinks of giving up teaching and entering upon another business which will be for life.

The weather we are glad to note has cleared and we have for several days past had beautiful weather. The farmers have taken advantage of it to put in lots of good tilling work. Our small gardeners are also planting their gardens.

The mills of the Cashie and Roanoke Rail Road and Lumber Co., at Howard, started up the first of this month with a full force of hands. They have been shut down for several months past and our trade has suffered from the effects of it. This company gives employment in all its branches in this county, to about 350 men and pays out about $600, to $800, per month. We are glad to note this fact as it insures us better times.

Our popular physician, Dr. H. V. Dunstan, was united in the bonds of Holy Matrimony to Miss Bessie Tayloe, sister of our merchants, Messrs. C. & R. Tayloe, on last Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. Charles Tayloe, about eight miles in the county. Rev. Z. T. Harrison (the former Methodist minister at this place) performed the ceremony. There were present only the immediate family and a few intimate friends. Dr. and Mrs. Dunstan then drove to Aulander where they took the train for the North. They visited among other places Richmond, Washington and Suffolk. The happy couple returned on Monday and went to their residence on Queen Street which has recently been put in first class repair and altered to a great extent. All our people welcome him and his bride and wish for them a long life, health and prosperity. CAROLUS. Windsor, N. C., March 6, 1894.

FROM UPPER NORTHAMPTON

WHAT HAS HAPPENED IN THAT SECTION SINCE OUR LAST ISSUE.

We are glad to note that Mrs. G. C. Hodgers, who was reported as being very sick, is improving.

We are sorry to note that Mr. Ben Suiter, the obliging Post Master at Garysburg, is confined to his bed with the Grippe.

Mrs. Sallie Miller, of Emporia, Va., has been spending a few days at her Roanoke river farm seeing after and arranging with her tenants.

Miss Ida Pugh is teaching school in district No. —. Miss Ida enjoys the reputation of being a good teacher. She seems to take an interest in her school.

Mrs. N. T. Pearson, who was reported a few days ago as better, has since that writing been dangerously ill. We are glad to note she is improving again.

We are pleased to note that Mr. Sam Robinson, who is suffering with a whitlow, is some better. The pain was so severe as to give him chills and to make him very sick otherwise.

Cato Moore and Mrs. Katie Ingram, two respected colored people, were married (in Cool Spring church of the colored people) last Thursday evening. Rev. Guy Powell, colored, officiating.

We were wrongly informed as to Master Edwin Zollicoffer as having Meningitis. It is St. Vitus dance. The Doctor has taken him to Kiebsand again this week, and will probably have to carry him several times before the treatment is over.

OBITUARIES.

Departed this life at the residence of Nathan Parker, Friday, February, 23, 1894, Mrs. Elizabeth W. Danning in the 71 year of her age. "Miss Bettie" (as she was familiarly known) had been a member of the Baptist church for 40 years, and during all this time her faith remained steadfast in her Savior. She was diligent in reading her Bible and regular in attending her church services. Though she was not confined to her bed but a few days before her death, yet she had been a sufferer quite a while. Many kind friends assembled around her bedside as the end drew near and it was discovered that she crossed the river with a song of Zion falling from her dying lips. Her funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. Cree, of the Baptist church. True she leaves no children to mourn for her; her husband also departed this life many years before, yet she leaves some warm friends to remember her; and though she be dead her influence still lives. Just three weeks previous to the death of the above named, God sent the death angel to this same household and called home little Ollie C. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Parker. How strange that God should have called the oldest and almost at the same time one of the youngest from the same home! The one an old and titled rose; the other a tiny bud. It was heart rending to witness the burial of this darling little lamb. She left a twin sister, and although very young, yet they had begun to love and play with each other in their innocent baby ways. No doubt the parents entertained fond hopes for their dear little twin daughters, but God knows just when to pluck these little buds and transplant them in His garden to bloom undisturbed by the polluted air of earth. Remember dear ones little Ollie is in heaven awaiting your arrival. Strive to meet her at the golden gate where you can forever enjoy the companionship of each other. True your family chain is broken and a golden link taken therefrom, but in heaven there shall be no broken family circles, no more sorrow of any kind but joy and peace forever. May we all endeavor to live nearer to Jesus, and at last enjoy the rest that remaineth to God's people. G. E. L.

It is the babbling springs that flows gently, the little rivulet which runs along, day and night by the farm house, that is useful, rather than the swollen flood, or the roaring cataract.
